Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International Seeks Enthusiastic Volunteer Board Members

The Professional Association of Therapeutic Horsemanship International (PATH Intl.), a Denver-based, international nonprofit professional membership association with a commitment to diversity and inclusion, is looking for a few dedicated professionals seeking to apply their expertise to our volunteer board of trustees.

Your involvement will have a profound impact as you help govern and represent our leading organization dedicated to ensuring excellence and strategic direction to the PATH Intl. community. Our 880 member centers provide activities that include therapeutic riding, hippotherapy, equine-facilitated psychotherapy and other equine-assisted activities that improve the lives of more than 66,000 children and adults with special needs, including more than 6,000 veterans.

We are seeking individuals with a commitment to nonprofit and/or board governance. Areas of expertise desired include, but are not limited to, individuals who have professional experience with third-party reimbursement management or advocacy, equine industry, marketing/PR. Financial expertise is a plus.

Are you looking for...

- ...the opportunity to provide new or fresh insight and perspective?
- ...engagement and team leadership opportunity in an innovative human service industry?
- ...the opportunity to apply and increase your leadership skills?
- ...a community that values how horses contribute to human health and well-being?

To apply, email Kandis Branum at kbranum@pathintl.org. You will be sent an application and detailed description of our phased process that asks applicants to serve on a committee for a minimum of one year prior to being considered for board candidacy.
