O Come
Let Us
Adore
Him

Will you?

This past week we were able to help a woman and her two children find lodging for three nights and put down a deposit on a new place to live, in a good apartment in a safe neighborhood. This was all done through money given to the discretionary fund, and it is a blessing to be able to help people. We are surrounded by need, and it is easy to be overwhelmed by the number of people who need help. It is easy to be discouraged by the number of people who take advantage of our kindness and mislead or lie to us about their situation. It is easy to say that we don't have the money to help everybody, so we decide not to help anybody.

When Mary and Joseph arrived in Bethlehem, there was room somewhere; there might have even been room in the inn. But the innkeeper looked at Mary who was about to give birth, and rather than reach out and help this couple in need, he decided that he didn't want to deal with all that mess. In most nativity plays the innkeeper appears remorseful and says he's very sorry, but there's just no room, and then he magnanimously offers them the stable. If nothing else there was his room. He could have reached out to the women in his community, and told them that this woman was about to give birth, and they likely would have found her a room, a birthing stool, hot water, towels, and women who knew how to deliver a baby. Instead, Mary was stuck with Joseph in a filthy stable. This is how Jesus came into the world. It's always easier to not do something, reach out, get involved, or take a risk. People are messy; relationships are messy, and maintaining our relationships with our nearest and dearest is hard enough, without including strangers as well. As we celebrate the birth of our Lord, let us consider how we might honor him and his mother; not just with songs, prayers, presents or pageants, but through helping people like them: the vulnerable, strangers and transients. And it's not one or the other; we can sing, pray and give while we raise up and help those most in need. It's nearly never a matter of can we do it, but rather, will we do it?

A Message from the Senior Warden

Dear people of St. Paul's, An address in a season of mixed emotions:

Our parish once again thanks Brittany Legg and Amber Brislin for their tremendous effort to make "Trunk or Treat" a success. Well done to all who helped. We, St. Paul's, are grateful.

Vestry nominations, to be voted on at our Annual Parish Meeting, are Tom Whitaker for Sr. Warden. Vestry nominations are John R. Davis, Ralph Winton, and Rebecca (Becky) Berry Scott. It is gratifying that these faithful members of St. Paul's are willing to serve. Their biographies are in this newsletter. Delegates proposed for the 2024 Diocesan Annual Council are Tyler McShan, Shaula Hailey, and Gina Thompson. Alternate, Will Sanders.

Addressing the bittersweet.... We bid farewell to Rev. Shelby, Jennifer, Archie, Tom and Rachel. The Shelbys leave St. Paul's to be closer to Jennifer's parents in California.

A busy calendar for Advent will be published. Fr. Shelby will have an Advent Wednesday study class of the great progression of, and reasons behind, the Christmas Story.

Please mark your calendars for December 18th. Many things happen that day. Christmas Pageant at 10:30. The Farewell Reception for the Shelby family will take place between the 8:00 a.m. service and the 10:30 service in the loggia...cake and punch! Please be there! In addition, at the 10:30 service on December 18, the Dedication of a new Brass Gospel book in memory of Alice Lancaster for her tireless work for St. Paul's and our Altar Guild will be blessed. This is made possible by the many donations in the memory of Alice and all she gave to this church. ALL CHILDREN are asked to participate in the Christmas Pageant. We have costumes for sheep-, angels, to Mary, Joseph, other important parts. Please call Pam Rhea to sign your children to participate. Lessons and Carols will take place, again on the 18th. Christmas Eve service will be one service late afternoon, December 24. Christmas Day service will be one service at 9:00 a.m. in the chapel.

In this time of uncertainty and questions, I am at your service to answer any questions or concerns. I will miss Fr. Shelby and his family, personally, and as a guiding light for St. Paul's. St. Paul's is working hard to maintain our congregation and its strength. Thanks be to God, gratitude to Pam Rhea, our gift, to guide us as Deacon-in-charge.

Marian Hazard, Sr. Warden

Biographies of Senior Warden and Vestry Nominees

Tom Whitaker – Senior Warden

Tom has been a member of St. Paul's since 1978. He has been involved with prior audits and working with the finance team, serving as past treasurer, vestryman, and junior warden. Tom enjoys being part of the usher team and helping to serve during the May luncheon, helping with loaves and fishes, EYC and other church outreach ministries. Tom would like to assist the church during this time of transition to help us grow our church and share our good news with others.

Rebecca (Becky) Berry Scott

I am thrilled to once again be a communicant of St. Paul's, the church where I was baptized and confirmed. I am so grateful for the hard work and service that has kept St. Paul's a beautiful and active Parrish. As a member of the Vestry, I would prioritize the preservation of our church building and grounds, and I would welcome any opportunity to build and grow our church family. I believe that we can accomplish this by committing to worshipping faithfully together, by creating opportunities to gather and celebrate together, and by serving our community together.

John Davis – Vestry

John Davis: Lifelong Episcopalian. Church Activities: Senior Warden, Vestry member, Vestry clerk, Choir member, Sunday school teacher, Confirmation teacher, Usher, Stewardship chair, Finance Committee chair, Long time Treasurer for church, School Board member and treasurer, Search committee, Discernment committee, Church Endowment trustee, Christian Education Committee, Outreach Committee, Homeless, Loaves & Fishes, Capital Campaign, Diocesan Trustee, Diocesan Executive Committee, Council Delegate.

I hope to see St Paul's and its members grow to their fullest potential.

Ralph Winton – Vestry

I was reared in the Methodist Church but was confirmed in the Episcopal Church in 1975. I have attended St. Paul's for about 36 years. From 1997-2010, I attended St Michael Episcopal Church, Fayette, AL. During my time at St Michael's, I served on the vestry, was treasurer, Jr Warden, and Sr Warden. During my early years at St. Paul's, I served as an usher. I completed the Education for Ministry (EFM) course on May 25, 2014. My volunteer work includes Loaves & Fishes and the Golden Triangle Regional Homeless Coalition. My wife, Melody, and I have been married for 17 months. My hope for St. Paul's is that we will continue to be the hands and feet of Jesus and look for new ways to serve our "neighbors". I would bring the will to continue to serve those in need in our community.

Preschool News

We are currently collecting $25 gift cards to Kroger and Wal-Mart for our St. Paul's Episcopal School staff. These women work very hard every day to educate the children of SPES and to make them feel loved and appreciated. Let us do the same by spreading some Christmas cheer with these gift cards. Donations should be brought to the office on or before December 16.

THANK YOU!

Due to the generosity of the parish, we were able to donate 32 Thanksgiving bags to Helping Hands in November.
