Dear Brothers and Sisters,

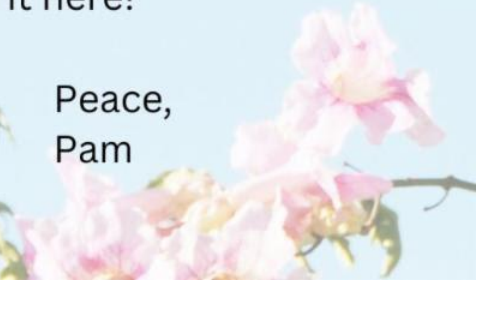

The May Luncheon may have worn us out physically, but the great joy it brought will carry us forward for many, many days. People working together, side-by-side, in small and large groups always creates a liveliness that can only be attributed to the presence of The Holy Spirit. Today, we are praising God for the opportunities of fellowship, productivity, and success the luncheon brings every year.

Our steering committee (Marian Hazard, Bridget Pieschel, Pat Curtis, and Gina Thompson) did a fabulous job coordinating this event. All who contributed in any way are very much appreciated. For those whose work obligations or health restrictions kept you from being here, we know you were with us in spirit.

As I visited each station, I had flashes of memories of luncheons of long ago and those who had gone before us- the hundreds of hands who had mixed the salad, stuffed the eggs, chopped the celery, cooked the barbeque, packaged the to-go orders, poured tea in the dining room, and worked together for the good of the church in dozens of ways. I know their section of the Great Cloud of Witnesses was watching over us as our work honored their legacy. Speaking of legacies, I treated myself to a Davis Patty Plate after it was all over. Ask someone about it sometime.

I ask you all to take just a moment today to say a quick prayer of thanksgiving to the God who made us and gave us this work to do. To God's glory and the spread of God's Kingdom, our hearts and hands were given. We are St. Paul's and we love it here!

Peace,
Pam

Your Voice Matters

The Search Committee for the 11th Bishop of the Diocese of Mississippi wants to hear from you!

Over the next month, the Committee is hosting seven listening sessions and distributing an online survey across the Diocese for all Episcopalians. The survey and sessions serve as opportunities for members to share their stories and experiences of being distinctly Episcopalian in the State of Mississippi, as well as your hopes for the next chapter of our Diocesan ministry.

Sessions will take place on Wednesday, May 17, at 5:30 PM, at Church of the Ascension, Hattiesburg; Thursday, May 18, at 6:00 PM, at St. Mark's, Gulfport; Sunday, May 21 at 12:00 PM, at Mediator, Meridian (A lunch will be provided); Wednesday, May 24, at 5:30 PM, at All Saints, Tupelo (A potluck supper will be offered); Wednesday, May 31, at 6:00 PM, at Church of the Nativity, Greenwood; Thursday, June 1, at 5:30 PM at St. Timothy's, Southaven; and Sunday, June 4, at 3:00 PM at St. Columb's, Ridgeland (This session will also be streamed and moderated on Facebook live). Separate listening sessions for the Clergy and Allin House Staff are also taking place this month.

In addition to the listening session, the Search Committee encourages all members of the Diocese to take a moment and complete the Diocesan Profile Survey. You can find the survey and Listening Session registration on our website, www.msbishopsearch.com.

The Committee knows this work cannot flourish without your prayers, support, and input. Joining together, we will find our next Bishop!

EDUCATION FOR MINISTRY

Education for Ministry (EfM) is a unique four-year distance learning certificate program in theological education based upon small-group study and practice.

The program invites participants into small, mentored groups that provide the framework for understanding life and shaping actions as Christian faith is deepened. EfM seminar groups meet in local settings and online, and provide a four-year curriculum that develops a theologically informed, reflective, and articulate laity.

If you are interested in having this program return to St. Paul's in the future, please email
