

Chrissy Rittberg

Chrissy Rittberg is an Assistant General Counsel and Assistant Secretary on the Institutional Investments team in the Northwestern Mutual Law Department. She primarily advises Northwestern Mutual and its subsidiaries in connection with NM's public and private investment portfolios and negotiates a wide variety of investment transactions, including securitizations, structured debt, fund finance, private credit, private placements, project finance, and preferred and common equity. She also advises on related workouts, restructurings and liability management transactions.

Prior to joining NM, Chrissy practiced law at Foley & Lardner LLP for more than 11 years, advising public and private companies on complex domestic and international financing arrangements. While at Foley, Chrissy regularly volunteered with the Wills for Heroes program preparing estate planning documents for first responders throughout the State of Wisconsin.

Chrissy is active in the American College of Investment Counsel (ACIC), where she serves on the Transaction Process Management Committee and the Education Committee and is co-chair of the upcoming Fall 2026 ACIC industry conference.

She earned her Bachelor of Business Administration in Accounting and Master of Accountancy in Taxation from the University of Wisconsin – Madison and attended the University of Minnesota Law School. Chrissy is a member of the State Bar of Wisconsin and is a Certified Public Accountant
