

Arinze N. Onugha is a senior associate in the New York office of Sullivan & Worcester LLP. He represents institutional investors, including regulated funds of funds, family offices and pension plans, making alternative investments in domestic and offshore special situations, growth, buy-out, venture capital, real estate and other private investment funds and co investments. He also represents fund sponsors in the organization, structuring and operation of their private funds. In addition, he assists clients with secondary sales and purchases of portfolios of private fund interests.

Arinze is a Goldman Sachs Scholarship for Excellence Award recipient and has been recognized by the Jackie Robinson Foundation as one of its "42 under 40" Distinguished Jackie Robinson Scholar Alumni. Arinze currently serves as a board member of the NYU Law School Alumni Association Board of Directors, co-chairing its External Affairs Committee, and Chairman of the Board of DIFFvelopment, Inc.

Arinze has a Bachelor of Science in Economics degree with a concentration in entrepreneurial management from the University of Pennsylvania's Wharton School of Business, and a Juris Doctor degree from New York University School of Law.