Amy Beaudoin

Managing Director and Associate Chief Counsel, Investment Transactions

Manulife

Boston, MA

Amy Beaudoin is a Managing Director and Associate Chief Counsel on the Investment Transactions Team at Manulife. In this role she is both an individual contributor and has responsibility for managing an international team of transactional attorneys supporting general account fixed income debt investments, project finance and private equity direct, co-investment and fund opportunities. She is a member of Manulife's Global Woman's Alliance and a co-chair of the Engagement Committee for the Global Governance, Investments and Transactions Team. Prior to joining Manulife in 2015, Amy spent six years in private practice as a Corporate & Securities associate at Dewey & LeBoeuf LLP and Pillsbury Winthrop Shaw Pittman LLP.

Amy received her B.A. from Colgate University and J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law. She is admitted to practice law in New York, Connecticut and Massachusetts and is a fellow of the American College of Investment Counsel and a member of its Transaction Process Management Committee. Amy and her husband, Bryan, have two daughters, Bridgette (7) and Paige (4).