Kevin Braun is Of Counsel in the Finance Practice Group of Morgan, Lewis & Bockius LLP, where he has advised institutional investors, direct lenders, banks, and other financial institutions in a broad range of domestic and cross border financing arrangements and restructurings for over 25 years. His practice is particularly focused on institutional private placements, syndicated loans, complex secured financings, and mezzanine financing transactions. He also represents private equity funds in connection with their purchase of portfolios of aircraft and related financing arrangements. Kevin has been the Northeast Regional Editor for the ACIC Newsletter for close to 20 years and founded the ACIC Move Crew with fellow runner Melody Cross. He is one of the last remaining attorneys in private practice from the Hebb & Gitlin law firm that was instrumental in the formation of the ACIC and the development of the initial Model Form Note Purchase Agreement.

Kevin received his B.S. in Finance from the University of Connecticut and his J.D. from the University of Connecticut School of Law. He and his wife, Julie, have one son, Shailen (22), who is a jazz musician and musical theater actor in New York City, and a 2024 graduate of the NYU Tisch School of Drama. Kevin loves to travel, and run, and his family is obsessed with all things Disney.
