

Monika Racz joined AIG in 2010 and currently serves as the Head of Private Equity within the Alternatives, Equity and External Mandates Unit. Ms. Racz has approximately 18 years of Private Equity related experience and is responsible for oversight of AIG's Private Equity Funds portfolio. In her role Ms. Racz has provided guidance on anything Private Equity related. She previously served as a Vice President/Assistant Portfolio Manager within this unit until 2013. Before joining AIG, Ms. Racz was briefly an Assistant Vice President in the Private Equity Fund Services group at JPMorgan where she had a client facing role and was responsible for portfolio administration of private equity related investments. Ms. Racz started her career at MetLife where she spent 11 years, holding various positions, including managing a portfolio of bank loans, Associate within the Alternatives Group where she gained significant knowledge of the Private Equity asset class among other alternative related asset classes, and an Analyst in the International Investment Unit assisting in the oversight and compliance of thirteen individual international investment portfolios. Ms. Racz earned a B.S. in Business Administration with a minor in International from The College of New Jersey, and a Masters of Business Administration in Finance from Seton Hall University.