David Botter advises on large, complex restructuring cases, both out of court and in chapter 11. He frequently handles multijurisdictional and cross-border matters for both distressed companies and major creditors, with an emphasis on creditors' committees and bondholder committees. Mr. Botter also frequently advises institutional investors, hedge funds, debtors-in-possession, post-petition lenders and acquirors of distressed assets. Chambers USA recognizes Mr. Botter as "a calming presence, cerebral and experienced." His work extends across a variety of industries, including health care, retail, transportation and energy, among others.

Mr. Botter's recent matters include Aeroméxico, FirstEnergy Solutions, GTT Communications, Inc., Nordic Aviation, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, Sears Holdings Corporation, TV Azteca, S.A.B. de C.V. and Virgin Australia. Other seminal engagements include Nortel Networks, Adeptus Health Inc., Answers Corporation, Hercules Offshore and International Shipholding Corporation.
