- ✓ Be a senior in High School, High School graduate, or GED equivalent in the state of Nevada or enrolled in a certified fashion industry program
- ✓ Have a 2.5 GPA or higher

Information required to process the Las Vegas Fashion Council Scholarship application is held confidential. Applicants are responsible for notifying the council of any changes in information or circumstances after submitting this application.

Applications require an original signature therefore must be printed. Once completed, return with necessary materials and return to the address listed above.

Materials to include with application:

- ✓ A copy of identification or license with current address and social security number.
- ✓ Transcripts—must be official and sealed from your school.
- ✓ Two (2) letters of recommendation from an employer, teacher, counselor, excluding family and friends.
- ✓ Personal narrative—this is your chance to tell us who you are and what you want to pursue in the fashion industry with your studies and ultimately, your career. We want to get a sense for who you are and how this scholarship will benefit your life. Narrative must be one full page, no more or less.
- ✓ Resume highlighting fashion experience. If work experience is limited, please include any achievements, awards or organizations you are a part of.
- ✓ Portfolio materials are encouraged but not required. Please do not submit original copies as they will not be accepted and we will not be held responsible for them. Digital formats or emailed presentation only. No mail.
- ✓ A copy of the acceptance letter to the educational institute where you will be applying your scholarship.
- ✓ A schedule of classes indicating fashion related courses.
