Welcome to Visitors and Guests

We are delighted to have you with us today. The ushers will be glad to assist in any way they can to make your visit more comfortable. Please do take a moment to introduce yourself to the clergy at the door following the service and sign the guest book in the church porch / vestibule.

Child care is available during the 10AM service for infants to age 4. Parents are given pagers. An usher will be happy to escort you there.

Sunday School (from age 3 through grade 12) begins after children and young people receive Holy Communion or a Blessing at the Altar Rail during the 10AM service and then proceed to their classrooms. (Most Sundays September through May). There is no Sunday School Today.

Adult Forum is held in the Upper Assembly Room following the 10AM service when Sunday School is in session, and ends at 12 NOON when the children are dismissed from their classes. All are welcome! There is no Adult Forum Today.

Adult Bible Study starting tomorrow, Monday, February 17 at 8PM, Scott Carr will be hosting an online Bible Study, using Zoom.

A Lift is available for those who require assistance in reaching the Upper and Lower Assembly Rooms. The ushers will be glad to help with its operation.

Safety Precaution Because there is no adult supervision in the parish house, children under the age of 13 leaving the service for any reason need to be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Exiting and Entering—To avoid unnecessary distractions during the service, please try to exit and enter during a hymn if possible. (But we do understand that when urgent needs arise it may not be possible!)

THE LITURGY OF THE WORD

the people are seated

The First Lesson.....Jeremiah 17: 5-10

Lector          A reading from the prophet Jeremiah.

Thus says the Lord: "Cursed is the man who trusts in man and makes flesh his arm, whose heart turns away from the Lord. He is like a shrub in the desert, and shall not see any good come. He shall dwell in the parched places of the wilderness, in an uninhabited salt land. "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose trust is the Lord. He is like a tree planted by water, that sends out its roots by the stream, and does not fear when heat comes, for its leaves remain green, and is not anxious in the year of drought, for it does not cease to bear fruit." The heart is deceitful above all things, and desperately corrupt; who can understand it? "I the Lord search the mind and try the heart, to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings."

Lector          The Word of the Lord.
People          Thanks be to God.

the people remain seated

Gradual Psalm 1 Beatus vir qui non abiit ..... W. Beale ( 1784-1754)

Blessed is the man that hath not walked in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stood in the way of sinners, *
and hath not sat in the seat of the scornful.

But his delight is in the law of the Lord; * and in his law will he exercise himself day and night.

And he shall be like a tree planted by the waterside, * that will bring forth his fruit in due season.

His leaf also shall not wither; *
and look, whatsoever he doeth, it shall prosper.

As for the ungodly, it is not so with them; *
but they are like the chaff, which the wind scattereth away from the face of the earth.

Therefore the ungodly shall not be able to stand in the judgment, * neither the sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

But the Lord knoweth the way of the righteous; * and the way of the ungodly shall perish.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; *
As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be,
world without end. Amen

The Second Lesson ..... 1 Corinthians 15: 12-20

Lector      A reading from the First Letter to the Corinthians.

Now if Christ is preached as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then Christ has not been raised; if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified of God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. For if the dead are not raised, then Christ has not been raised. If Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. If for this life only we have hoped in Christ, we are of all men most to be pitied. But in fact Christ has been raised from the dead, the first fruits of those who have fallen asleep.

Lector      The Word of the Lord.

People      Thanks be to God.

the people standing

Alleluia and Verse Dóminus regnávít ..... Mode VI

O sing unto the Lord a new song: for he hath done marvellous things.

Alleluia.

Sequence Hymn 537 “Christ for the world we sing” ..... Moscow

The Holy Gospel ..... Luke 6:17-26

Celebrant    The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People        Glory be to thee, O Lord.

Jesus came down with the twelve apostles, and stood on a level place, with a great crowd of his disciples and a great multitude of people from all Judea and Jerusalem and the seacoast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him and to be healed of their diseases; and those who were troubled with unclean spirits were cured. And all the crowd sought to touch him, for power came forth from him and healed them all. And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said: “Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God. Blessed are you that hunger now, for you shall be satisfied. Blessed are you that weep now, for you shall laugh. Blessed are you when men hate you, and when they exclude you and revile you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the Son of man! Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven; for so their fathers did to the prophets. But woe to you that are rich, for you have received your consolation. Woe to you that are full now, for you shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now, for you shall mourn and weep. Woe to you, when all men speak well of you, for so their fathers did to the false prophets.”

Celebrant    The Gospel of the Lord.

Liturgical Corner

Our words and actions are important throughout the liturgy. In the upcoming months we will be exploring the liturgy and the Book of Common Prayer at the Adult Forum. As well, we will be featuring a short piece in the Sunday bulletin and in the Friday announcements.

How to receive the Eucharist in the Anglican Tradition

The first reminder for us to consider is the correct way of receiving the Body and Blood in the bread and wine. What we are receiving in the Sacrament is sacred, it is the Real Presence of Christ. In order to protect the sanctity of the Sacrament, we have to consider the proper way to receive the Eucharist.

1. It is customary to genuflect or bow when one leaves the pew. This reminds us that what we are about to do is sacred. And we approach the altar quietly and reverently.
2. Once at the altar rail we are reminded that the sanctuary is a special and holy place which is different from the rest of the church building. The communicant kneels in reverence to receive the Body and Blood of Christ (it is also appropriate to stand to receive communion if a person is unable to kneel).
3. Receiving the Body of Christ, the priest will hold up the Host over the communicant and say, “The Body of Christ, the bread of heaven” at this point the communicant answers, “AMEN.” “Amen is an Aramaic word that means, “So be it” or “I agree” or “I believe.” By saying “Amen” to the priest’s words, the communicant is saying that he or she believes that this is the Body of Christ.

There are two ways in which a person can receive the Body of Christ – either in the hand or on the tongue. If a person is to receive in the hand, the communicant should extend his or her hands at head level with one hand slightly cupped, but remaining open over the other hand (traditionally this has been the right hand cupped over the left hand.) Think about making a “throne for the Lord” to be placed. St Cyril of Jerusalem in the 4th century wrote: “When you approach, do not go stretching out your open hands or having your fingers spread out, but make the left hand into a throne for the right which shall receive the King.”

After the priest places the host on the hand, leave host in the open hand, say Amen, and lift the host to one's mouth.

Anglicans do not pick up the host with their fingers, unless it is physically impossible to receive in any other way. If a person wishes to receive on the tongue, the head should be bent slightly back. The tongue should come out over the bottom teeth, equal with the bottom lip, so that the priest has some place to put the Host. Then open the mouth as wide as possible by lowering the lower jaw.

4. Receiving the Blood of Christ, the minister will hold the chalice in front of the communicant and say, "The Blood of Christ, the cup of salvation." and the communicant responds "AMEN" (just like when the communicant received the Sacred Host). The communicant should help guide the chalice to his or her lips by raising the bottom of the chalice. Once the communicant has received the Blood, he or she should begin to lower the hand holding the bottom of the chalice. This will help the minister know when the communicant has received the Sacrament. In the Anglican tradition the communicant does not take the chalice by himself or herself when receiving the Blood.

5. Receiving by Intinction, means to dip. Some prefer to receive the Host and wine together. The proper way to receive by intinction is to leave the Host in one's open hand. Do not pick up the Host and hand it to the minister. The minister will take the Host from the person's hand and dip it in the chalice and place it on the communicant's tongue saying: The Body and Blood of our Lord Jesus Christ keep you in everlasting life" and the communicant responds "AMEN." The communicant does not dip the Host into the chalice himself or herself. Intinction is viewed as a mode of communication to be used in cases of communicable diseases, infirmity, etc. As well, fewer germs are spread when the minister is the person who dips the host in the chalice.

6. After returning to the pew, it is appropriate to either sit or kneel and in silent prayer to thank God for the gift of his Son in the Most Holy Sacrament.
7. It is appropriate for the communicant to make the sign of the cross after receiving each element in the Eucharist in symbolic recognition that he or she has just received the Body and Blood of Christ.
