Welcoming Broadway's New Pastor

Mark Briley Assumes Lead Ministry Role at Broadway

Broadway has already celebrated one big Kick-Offs Sunday—way back on August 18! However, we've all known that another big Sunday was coming up on the Broadway calendar—September 8—the Sunday that we welcome Mark Briley, Broadway's new Lead Minister to the pulpit!

You may have already met Mark, Carrie, Morgan, Dane or Hayes Briley as they have embraced their move to Columbia and enter into the everyday routine of school and community. You may have even seen them sitting in worship the past few Sundays –after all, we are their church home now!

While meeting the Brileys has been and will be great, September 8 holds special significance. It is the Sunday when the call to Broadway's pulpit becomes real.

Mark's first Sunday will be a 'regular' Sunday. No crowded fellowship event following Contemporary Worship with hundreds of our members trying to get a moment with Mark and his family. Instead, Fellowship Ministry has scheduled a series of small, in-home or at-church gatherings, to allow our members to engage in real conversation with the Brileys. A listing of dates, times and locations is on page three. It is important that you contact the gathering's host to rsvp—space will be limited at gatherings as determined by each host. These gatherings are scheduled at a variety of times, including daytime gatherings at Broadway hosted by members who will provide refreshments and facilitate conversation. The Broadway Bus will be available to provide transportation to the Broadway Conference Room gatherings.

Mark wants to meet us—and we all want to meet him! Be in church this Sunday to welcome Mark and his family to Broadway "officially"!

What to Say...

Anne Lamott once said, “My mind is like a bad neighborhood. You never want to go there alone.” The truth is, we are alone with our thoughts all of the time. Charles Fernyhough, professor at Durham University in the U.K., offers a historical overview of “inner speech” in his book, The Voices Within. “Inner Speech” is the more scientific term for “talking to yourself in your head.” Because we don’t have to use our tongues and lips and voice boxes to produce inner dialogue, we can produce speech much faster when talking to ourselves. One researcher cited in Fernyhough’s work clocks inner speech at an average pace of 4,000 words per minute which is ten times faster than verbal speech. And it’s more condensed as we don’t have to use full sentences to talk to ourselves because we know what we mean.

As I sat down to write this first article as one of your pastors at Broadway, my inner speech was maxing out at incredible rates. “This is really happening,” I thought to myself. “All these years of soul-walking with this church and here I am, writing to them as pastor. What do I say?” “I could say this... I could say that... should there be one of those clever column names like ‘Mark’s Musings’ or something?” ... The funny thing is that your inner speech is cranking up right now too. “What is he going to say?” you’re wondering. “And why doesn’t he just say it already!” “And please don’t call the column, ‘Mark’s Musings’... seriously.”

My mind raced. I thought about the way in which we’ve come together at this point in Broadway’s history. I thought of so many of you I’ve met already who have been so gracious to my family. “What can we do to help?” you’ve asked. Asking alone has been more help than you could possibly know. My inner speech jumped to Terry and Nick and the staff team who have carried so much this year and yet have invited me in as an insider, not a stranger left to onboard without a map of any kind. They have epitomized grace and you know this about them already. “Grace. Grace. Grace,” my mind raced. “We’re all going to need it,” I thought, knowing that connecting names and personalities and community cultures and communal taboos all take time to assimilate and understand.

“Tell them about all of your ideas!” I thought to myself. “Tell them how excited you are to hear their ideas and dreams and passions about how the Broadway Spirit might manifest itself in this new chapter we will write together.” “Don’t get ahead of yourself,” I said to ... myself. “Don’t scare them off with visions and dreams and extraordinary hopes.” Oh the racing continued... 4,000 words per minute.

Thoughts of “First Sunday coming... will anyone show?” “Maybe everyone could invite someone to come with them. I mean the more the merrier, right?” “What better chance to come see what’s happening now?” So many things could be written “out loud.” “Don’t peak early,” I thought. “Short and sweet is the way to go. Short... and... sweet.” And so I decided to simply say this: Nice to meet you Broadway. I can’t wait to see where God’s going to lead us. Let’s start with Sunday!

Find Your Day and Time to 'Meet and Greet' the Brileys!

Listed below are the "Meet and Greet" open house gatherings for Broadway members. Those of you that are attending Broadway services are welcomed to attend. The gatherings will give you the opportunity to meet and greet our new Lead Minister Mark Briley and his wife Carrie. The gatherings will be informal. We know that some of you will not be able to be there for the entire time and some of you will not be able to be there at the starting time. That will not be a problem. During the time you are there you will not only meet the Brileys, but most likely, you will get to meet Broadway members that you have never met.

Be sure to RSVP, the information is listed. It is important that the hosts know how many will be attending their location. We had many more church members that volunteered to host but did not have enough open dates and time. Before his call to Broadway, Mark had commitments already on his calendar both in September and October. Since his call he has added many Broadway commitments to that calendar. Having three school - age children will always add to a schedule. At this time, we hope to add a couple of "meet and greet gatherings" in November. Thank you to Mark, Carrie and the hosts.

Reconciliation Ministry: Facing the Past With Hope for the Future

Southern Pilgrimage Inspires Local Walk

In early August, a group of 23 traveled from Columbia to visit historical civil rights locations in Tennessee and Alabama. It was an educational and emotional experience, as we saw places and towns where the worst of our national history and culture had been on full display. We also learned of places and times when our nation's capacity for kindness, justice and grace was evident, even on the worst of days. There is healing to do and justice to achieve, nationally and locally.

Local Civil Rights Pilgrimage

Growing from these experiences, a local Columbia Civil Rights

Pilgrimage will take place on Sunday, September 22, beginning at 3:00 p.m. at St. Luke's Methodist Church. The Pilgrimage will lead participants through the area of Sharpend, Columbia's historically black neighborhood, and will include stops and tours of St. Luke's, St. Paul AME Church, Fifth Street Christian Church, Second Missionary Baptist Church and Russell Chapel. The Broadway Bus will be available for those who would find the walk difficult—please contact Don Day at 474.5539, by Wednesday, September 18, if you would like to ride the bus.

The CoMo Pilgrimage will begin and end at St. Luke's, with the entire Pilgrimage lasting approximately two hours. At the conclusion of the Pilgrimage, participants will gather at St. Luke's for a hymn sing and a dessert potluck. Please bring a dessert to share—you can drop it off at St. Luke's at the beginning of the Walk.

Sunday, October 6: August Civil Rights Pilgrimage Lunch and Learn

Join us for lunch following worship on Sunday, October 6, for a look back at the August, 2019,

Civil Rights Pilgrimage and the historical, emotional and cultural lessons that were learned. Don Day, along with our Regional Minister Paul Koch, and other Pilgrimage participants will be present to share stories and pictures from the trip. This year's Pilgrimage group traveled to Memphis, TN, and Selma, Haynesville, Montgomery and Birmingham, AL to visit museums and historical sites important in the 1962 civil rights struggle. Along the way, the group was fortunate enough to speak with those who lived the history as children and young adults—each bringing their own truth and clarity to the story.

Lunch will be provided by Broadway's Mission and Outreach Ministry.

Join Us for CROP Walk On September 15

You can enjoy a stroll through beautiful Stephens Lake Park AND raise money to fight hunger locally and around the world! It is a win/win, Broadway friends!

On Sunday, September 15, Columbia's CROP Hunger Walk will step off at 2:00 p.m., with registration beginning at 1:15 p.m. in the Gordon Shelter at Stephens. Even better—,meet us at the Collins Shelter at 12:30 p.m. for a free lunch of hot dogs, chips and fruit, provided by Broadway's Mission and Outreach Ministry for all CROP Walkers!

Look for our CROP Walk registration table just outside the Narthex doors on September 8 and 15, and sign up now to be a Broadway Walker. You can also register to walk online by visiting the CROP Hunger Walk homepage and searching for the Columbia, MO Walk. Registering online allows your friends from across the country to sponsor your walk to mitigate hunger issues around the world!

The Story of the Recipe for Care and Kindness

By now we hope you know that CareLink has 10 ministries under its umbrella and one of those is CASSEROLES AND COOKIES. Sure, we all make and eat and often love casseroles and cookies. But did you know that they are a true example of the care that our church family provides for other church family members?

Sometimes things happen, not always good things. Maybe it's a hospitalization or a death in the family or a child or grandma who need so much care. And what that family really needs is a hot meal and a treat. That's when the CareLink Casserole Ministry comes through the door at just the right minute. They can make a full-size casserole or a mini-casserole depending on the size of the family.

But how do we know when to bring the casserole? First, our ministers know that we are ready and willing to deliver when they tell the family of this service. Second, members of our church family can call the church office and let us know they need a casserole. The word will get to the casserole team and they go into action.

For quite a while now Dorothy Sprouse has headed this ministry. When she could no longer do it, we looked and looked for a new chair. And right there, under our own noses, was the answer of all answers. Just last week Joyce Harter told us she would like to head this important ministry. (She already heads the Care Center Visit ministry.) Can Now, would you like to hear the secret recipe for CareLink Casseroles?

—Clip and Save—

A CareLink Casserole

- First assemble a team of caring volunteers.
- Then mix in fellowship as they stir and create the casseroles and cookies.

Ingredients:

- one part Christian love
- one part willingness to serve
- one part time and talent devoted to others

add a dash of joy!

Mix, bake, package and deliver the most hearty casseroles and cookies at just the right moment.

Offer the support needed by the family and then quietly slip away to serve again.

Be A Part of the CareLink Ministry:

Just let Patsy Dalton (356-6036) or Linda Poehlmann (234-1950) know that you'd like to be a volunteer in one of 10 different CareLink ministries, including Casseroles and Cookies!!

60+ Group Becomes Seasoned Spirits

Broadway's 60+ seniors fellowship ministry has been under the leadership of Darlene and Jack Miles for more than 20 years. Jack and Darlene have retired from their volunteer "job" of coordinating all of the 60+ fellowship, activities and trips—and with a new leader has come a few changes, including a new name!

Seasoned Spirits is the "new" 60+, since over-60 would not really describe the group's make-up anymore. Seasoned Spirits is open to all Broadway members and friends who are 50 and over—whether you are retired or not! Marcia Walker has agreed to coordinate the Seasoned Spirits, and began her tenure with a very well-attended planning meeting on August 16.

At that planning meeting, the group contributed ideas for programs, speakers and day trips for the coming year. Marcia announced a few changes to the group's calendar—no more winter meetings—along with implementing an electronic rsvp system for those with access to email. Those without email addresses will continue to receive a paper announcement for upcoming activities.

On Thursday, September 12, the Seasoned Spirits will meet at the new State Historical Society on Elm Street downtown for a tour of their new building and displays.

Members should park in the rear of the building.

The first fellowship lunch for the new church year will be on Monday, September 16, when the Seasoned Spirits will welcome Broadway's new Pastor, Mark Briley, as the special guest. Lunch will begin at Noon, and will cost $6, which is payable by check or cash at the door. Please rsvp by Wednesday, September 11.

Marcia will announce future activities and lunch speakers in the next weeks. If you have an email address, and are not sure that it is on file at Broadway, please make sure to contact the office to allow Seasoned Spirits information to find your inbox!

Special September 17 Harp & Healing

The Partners in Ministry Retreat, which brings ministers from the Christian Church and the United Church of Christ together to share fellowship and worship, will sponsor a very special Harp and Healing worship on Tuesday, September 17, at 7:00 p.m. in the Broadway Sanctuary. The special Harp and Healing will also include communion during worship.

In addition to the regular features of our Harp and Healing worship—the beautiful music of Maria Trevor's harp, candlelight and quiet reflections—we will be joined by storyteller Valerie Tutson. All Broadway members and friends are invited to join us for this special Harp and Healing!

Work of Our Hands Table Begins This Sunday!

The Work of Our Hands Table is a wonderful way to support the ministry of Broadway's Mission and Outreach, while treating yourself (and maybe a friend!) to some beautiful things at bargain prices! Each year, Broadway folks donate hand-crafted items, baked treats, jewelry and more—to the Table. Mission and Outreach volunteers price the items and then they are sold. All of the proceeds are used to purchase supplies for school and hygiene kits for Church World

Warm Up Columbia Coat Drive Begins Sept. 22

Winter coats are starting to appear in local stores, and parents of children and teens have likely already checked the sizing of last year's coat. If you will be purchasing new coats this fall, we would love to collect your old ones!

Our Broadway Warm Up Columbia Coat Drive is held in cooperation with Voluntary Action Center. All coats are collected by VAC and then distributed to adults, youth and children who need a gently-used 'new to them' coat or jacket. All sizes are needed, so please bring your donations beginning Sunday, September 22, to the collection barrel in Fellowship Hall. Coats will be collected through mid-October.

Services. With the recent hurricane damage in the Caribbean, many of these kits will likely be sent to those affected by that massive storm.

If you would like to donate items to the Table, please drop them off on Sunday morning or in the church office during the week. Broadway is blessed with many talented and creative crafters—we hope that you will share a few of your treasures with all of us!

Be A Buddy for Our All God's Children Classroom

Sometimes, the kids in our All God's Children classroom need a 'buddy', someone who can hold a hand if a sound is too loud, or take a walk with them if the activity is too much. And, sometimes, our All God's Children teacher, Hallie Rainwater, could use a set (or third) set of hands to fetch a marker or press play on the cassette player.

These are simple things, but these tasks can quickly become complicated without adequate volunteer help. If you can spend an hour on Sundays with some pretty wonderful kids, please contact the church office at 445.5312. You can also talk with Hallie on Sunday morning, before the beginning of the AGC hour.
