A Worship Enhancement for Kids!

Many recall, as young children, sitting next to their parents or grandparents in the church pew, holding a hymnal for mom and listening (as best a child could) to the pastor's sermon. Luckily, a parent would usually have a piece of paper and a pencil for doodling, and if you were really lucky, one or two peppermints. Some sermons were a one-minter; some were a two! Doodling and enjoying a mint or two is a good way to keep a restless child content. There is certainly joy in the experience of the whole family in worship. There is also value in our youngest children discovering gifts of worship at a developmental level that can speak to them in another unique way.

In March, Broadway Children's Ministries will launch Children's Church; a pilot program during the 11:15 worship hour. While children will always be welcomed for the duration of any of our worship services, we believe Children's Church offers a new choice for parents and families!

Children will begin worship in the sanctuary with their families. After the Children's Moment, our pastors will offering a children's blessing and release all who choose to accompany our Children's Church leaders to the Music Center for this worship enhancement opportunity. Our All God's Children program will continue to thrive and be available during this time as well.

Pre-kindergarten through third grade students are the intended focus for this new program. Children's Church will be held in the Music Center (next to the Sanctuary) where their experience will be modeled after "Big" Church, with our children hearing the same scriptures their families will hear in the sanctuary as well as key ideas from the sermon that families can discuss after worship. Children's Church will reflect other familiar elements of our Sunday worship as well, including singing, offering, prayer and communion.

This pilot program will run through May 31st with plans to evaluate the program at that time. As a worship enhancement experience, this is not intended to replace the importance of the education and fellowship that comes during our regular Sunday School hour at 10:10 am. The purposes of Sunday School and Children's Church complement one another, both serving incredible purpose in the nurturing of our youngest disciples.

Because of the value of all generations sharing in worship together, there will be regularly scheduled Family Worship Sundays where the children will stay in the sanctuary to experience worship with the whole community; a chance for children to see how the worship practices they are learning are expressed within the larger community. Our children's choir may often share a gift of their music on these Sundays; songs they have been learning in Children's Church.

Children's Church will require a team of dedicated volunteers to make this new worship experience special for Broadway's children! Children's Ministries is seeking to fill five teams of three volunteers who will guide our youngest disciples through worship on a rotating schedule. May this new enhancement option for families bring new depth and blessing to our whole community. If you would be willing to join the volunteer effort of this pilot program, please contact Aimee at 573-445.5312

Whether you are a sports fan or not, it's hard not to have heard that our home state, Kansas City Chiefs, are Super Bowl champions. Growing up an anxious Chief's fan known for saying, "There's always next year," it feels pretty amazing to say that next year is in fact, this year! My youngest son, Hayes, picked the hometown team to win by ten points. He was close! We celebrated with our Columbia family and enjoyed the fun that comes when your team wins. My three-year-old nephew, Oliver, was my closest companion during the game. Wearing proudly his Travis Kelce jersey, he whispered in my ear after the opening kick-off: "Did we win yet?" About every three or four minutes, Oliver returned to my side asking with all the hope in the world, "Did we win yet?" Unfortunately, he was asleep before I could confidently tell him, "Yes, Oliver. We won!"

Five months into our ministry partnership here at Broadway, several folks have begun asking me, "Did we win yet, Pastor?" They haven't phrased it quite that way but the hope-filled sentiment is there. "Are we growing yet?" "Are you settling in okay?" "Do you think we could do this?" One of my favorite versions of this question comes often from one of the youngest among us, a young man with a contagious smile who asks, "Can we do it today?" "It" might be sitting together or playing or singing or any number of things. It's hard not to feed off of his energy.

Are we winning yet? I'm not fully sure how to answer that question. I can say, however, that I'm learning a lot. I can say how much I am amazed by your caring spirit for one another. I can say, worship is uplifting in every unique form offered by the fine people of our congregation for the glory of God. I can say how moving it was to watch, and serve alongside of you, at Room at the Inn or a church work day or in the good faith work of racial reconciliation. I can say how fun it has been to hear you tell stories about your "Star Word" or how you've invited a friend to join you in worship or how excited you are to see what our visioning process reveals to us this year. "Let's do something big!" one person said. That spirit. That heart. If "winning" is even a thing in this regard, that's it. Your enthusiasm for your faith... to go deeper and grow wider; to serve more and sing with greater conviction; to welcome the Other and call each and all 'neighbor'. "Did we win yet?" When it comes to our life together as Broadway Christian Church, I'm dying for Oliver to ask me that question. I'd love to share with him: "Without a doubt, my nephew!" God is good. Here's to being faithful again each and every tomorrow.

My Regards,
Mark

What's Next, Broadway?

Broadway's Vision Team Launches

The Proverbial writer is often quoted saying, “Where there is no vision, the people perish.” (Proverbs 29:18). It’s a strong word and one we generally accept even when the vision of the moment seems unclear. One translation offers the same wisdom in this way: “If people can’t see what God is doing, they stumble all over themselves; but when they attend to what God reveals, they are most blessed.”

Broadway is in a visioning season; seeking clarity on who God is calling us to be in this time and place as a community of faith. A new decade. A new partnership. A new hope for the roaring 20’s! As the faithful vision of the last decade finds completion, it’s time to envision the next five years ahead of us in this most challenging and fascinating time to be alive.

A representative group of Broadway members has committed to lead the way in this process. Deb Ward and Ed Stansberry will serve as co-leaders of the Vision Team. Others serving on the team include, Colleen Colaner, Kristen Crews, Darren Day, Roger Fisher, Brent Ghan, Allison Hall, Tricia Marchack, Phil Schoo, Sandy Stallman, and Karen Weaver. This team will meet monthly through the end of November, with hopes of revealing their spirit-led discoveries with the community at Thanksgiving.

We need to hear from one and all! An intentional seeking of prayerful input from the congregation will be a significant priority. Stay tuned for those opportunities to share in this process in the coming months. For now, hold this team and our congregation in your daily prayers. God’s call on our community should stretch us, challenge us, and excite us forward. Here’s to the future, Broadway!

A Learning Opportunity for All of Us...

The Milly Project Comes to Broadway on March 1

First—what is The Milly Project?

The Milly Project is an original stage production, written and performed by students of Willard High School. The play tells the story of Milly Sawyers, who was a slave in Springfield, Missouri, and who, two decades before the Dred Scott decision, sued for her freedom—and won.

Broadway will host a presentation of The Milly Project on Sunday, March 1, at 7:00 p.m. in our Sanctuary. There is no charge to attend and the public is invited.

“Play” not adequately describes The Milly Project. It is a fast-paced, tightly woven production, using drama, poetry, and music bringing Milly’s story to a

21st century audience. If you have seen or heard Hamilton, the production and writing of The Milly Project is reflective of that style of theater.

The students of Willard High School have performed their original production all across Missouri, and have traveled to Mississippi and Alabama to share The Milly Project. The play began as a class project, following the discovery and publication of a yellowed and fading hand-written trial transcript from the 1830s. Fortunately for all of us, Milly’s struggle to win her freedom was not lost to history and is now speaking to today’s culture, as we continue to struggle with issues of equality and justice.

Register Now for 2020 Women’s Retreat

The Women’s retreat at Broadway is the momma of all Broadway retreats, and our 22nd annual Women’s Retreat promises to be another success!

This year’s theme is “Goin’ On A Bear Hunt.” An interesting choice for a Women’s Retreat, right? Beginning on Friday, February 21, and continuing on Saturday, February 22, participants will hear speakers who will illustrate, through their own life experiences, how women go bear hunting every day!

This year’s Retreat will be held at Broadway, and will include several attendance options. The Retreat registration fee includes meals and activities, along with all of the snacks, which will likely include a good supply of chocolate!

For registration information, brochures are available at all Welcome Centers, on the Broadway website and in the Broadway Weekly e-news. If you have questions, please contact Pastor Terry at 445.5312.

Anti-Racism Book Study Kicks Off February 9

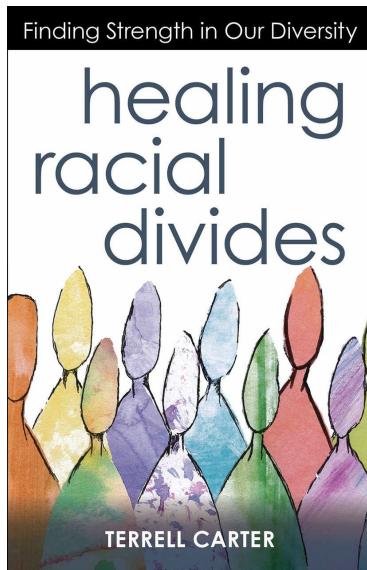

This Sunday, February 9, Broadway will begin its second book study on issues of race and culture with Healing Racial Divides by Dr. Terrell Carter. Our book study will begin with a kick-off event at 3:00 p.m. in the Broadway Sanctuary, when we will be joined by Dr. Carter to speak on the issues highlighted in his book.

Following Dr. Carter's talk and the discussion sure to follow, Mission and Outreach Ministry (MOM) is sponsoring a potluck dinner at 5:00 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. MOM will provide the main dish, and participants are asked to bring a side dish and/or dessert to share.

The anti-racism book studies will last approximately three months. At the end of May, Dr. Carter will return to Broadway, to hear our stories of shared study and conversation. He, and we, will get a before and after perspective on the book and how our reading and our discussions have made us more aware of racial division; and more importantly, how we can heal those divisions.

Our second book study will include at least 16 churches, both traditionally white and black congregations. The discussion groups will meet at a variety of times and intervals, but all with the goal of completing the book by the time Dr. Carter returns to Columbia.

If you would like more information, please contact Don Day at 474.5539. Dr. Carter's book will be available for purchase on Sunday, or you may order it online from Chalice Press or Amazon.

Without a lot of fanfare, marching bands or balloons, Broadway's CareLink Ministry just keeps on keeping on. Dozens of volunteers in more than ten compassionate ministries just do what they do every month. It is a rare month when the number of people touched by CareLink does not approach 300 Broadway members!

Flying under the radar is a CareLink specialty! The ministers and staff know that a post to our Pastoral Care message board will galvanize certain people into instant action! The card writers begin to search for an address. The callers ask for the new mobile number when the land line doesn't work anymore. The casserole ministry folks just take a 9x13 pan out of the freezer to thaw. It's the system and it works well.

Many Broadway members get to know CareLink during times when they are feeling great and all is well; except there's that gutter that has come loose from the soffit. Maybe they have a toilet that won't stop running (all together now—you'd better catch it!). They have discovered CareLink's compassion through the Handy Helpers, a group of retired men who are super at halting a running toilet or re-attaching a downspout.

Through CareLink and Spirited Singers, there are people who are treated to songs they remember and can sing along to at local care facilities. CareLink will also arrange for our members who are in those care facilities to have beautiful flowers delivered, or perhaps a personal visit, or both!

These acts of kindness and caring are just some of the ways CareLink and its volunteers care for those in our church family at Broadway. And if, like me, you read the numbers posted almost every month of those who have been helped and those who have volunteered, it will not surprise you to know that CareLink shares a compassionate touch over 1000 times during a year. What an amazing testament to the CareLink ministry of caring, and a shining example of the Broadway Spirit.

If you would like to be a part of CareLink, just contact Patsy or Linda at the numbers and emails below. You can be a part of the heart of Broadway, too! And if you pass an amazing CareLink volunteer in the church hallway next Sunday, be sure to thank them for the hours of service these men and women dedicate to their Broadway family!

Seasoned Spirits Plan A Busy 2020 Schedule

Broadway's Seasoned Spirits (formerly 60+) have a full calendar planned for Spring, 2020! And remember, Seasoned Spirits includes Broadway members and friends who are 50 and over, so if you've been fortunate to retire early—join the group!

In February...

Thursday, February 13: Day Trip to Fulton
The group will depart from Broadway at 9:15 a.m. to visit the Churchill Museum and take a tour of Fulton First Christian Church. The cost is $14 for museum admission and bus transportation. Lunch will be at your expense at Beck's. Reservations are due by February 10.

Monday, February 24 at Noon: Luncheon at Broadway in Fellowship Hall, with guest speaker, Mickey Havener. Mickey will talk about "Doulas" and what they do. Lunch will be catered by Big Daddy's BBQ and costs $10. Reservations are due by February 19.

A June Play Date with a February Deadline..

On Sunday, June 28, Seasoned Spirits will take a trip to the Maples Reparatory Theater in Macon for a 2:00 p.m. performance of You Can't Take It With You. Reservations must be received by February 25, with your payment of $33 (non-refundable).

Please put your check in Carole Braun's church mailbox, and there is a limit of 30 for this trip.

In March...

Thursday, March 19: The group will take a day trip to Warm Springs Ranch in Bonville—the home of the Clydesdale babies! The cost for the tour is $16.50, and must be paid by the registration deadline of March 11. There is an additional $5 charge for bus transportation, and lunch will be on your own at Olive Garden.

Monday, March 30, at Noon: The group's monthly luncheon will feature Nanette Ward, who will speak on Human Trafficking. The meal will be provided by MOM's Catering, and the cost is $10. Reservations are due by March 26.

Transfiguration Sunday Gets A Jazzy Vibe

We all remember Transfiguration Sunday, right? It is the Sunday before Ash Wednesday, and the Bible tells us that Jesus went "on a high mountain" with Peter and James; and it was on the mountain that Peter and James watched as Jesus met with Elijah and Moses—and then was transfigured.

On Transfiguration Sunday, February 23, we will hear the scripture and sermon as usual; but at our 11:15 worship, our worship music will be a bit transformed as we commemorate this Sunday with a jazz ensemble.

Bruce Jackson, who plays guitar with the Broadway Ensemble, will lead the Jazz Toaster ensemble for our February 23 worship. The ensemble includes saxophone, clarinet, bass, keyboards and more.

What better way to lead us into the Lenten season than the joyous music of jazz? We will see you on February 23!

We Welcome Callie Gates to the Broadway Staff

Should we say "welcome" to Callie Gates, or maybe, "Welcome Back!"?

Callie (Holmes) Gates is Broadway's new Children's Ministry Assistant. Callie grew up at Broadway, attending church with her parents, David and Lysa Holmes. But, as we all know, little girls grow up: Callie is now married to Daniel Gates, and they have two sons, Ryland and Cason.

Callie will work with Children's Ministry Coordinator,

Aimee McBride, to provide engaging Christian education opportunities for Broadway's children. She brings several years of experience in Children's Ministry, and is looking forward to sharing that valuable experience with our Worship & Wonder and Pathways programs.

Callie will be shadowing Aimee on Sunday morning, so please take a moment to welcome her back to Broadway.

Ash Wednesday Service Begins Season of Lent

Christians around the world will observe the beginning of the Lenten Season on Ash Wednesday, February 26. Broadway members will begin this sacred season of sacrifice with an Ash Wednesday worship service at 7:00 p.m. in the Broadway Sanctuary.

Before worship begins, you are invited to join us for a fellowship meal in Fellow Hall, beginning at 5:30 p.m. The meal will be prepared by MOM's Catering, and donations will be gratefully accepted. All proceeds will be used to defray expenses for our upcoming mission trip to El Salvador.

During the Lenten Season, the sermon series theme will be "All Groan Up" - more on this next month. Our traditional Wednesday evening Vespers will begin on March 4, at 5:30 p.m. in Fellowship Hall. We will celebrate the communion of a shared meal following Vespers on March 4, 11 and 18.

Maundy Thursday worship on April 9, and Good Friday worship on April 10 will begin at 7:00 p.m. in the Sanctuary. In April 10, we will once again open our Fellowship Hall doors for a Good Friday Fish Fry at 5:30 p.m. More information on both Maundy Thursday and the Good Friday services will be available in next month's newsletter.

We hope to see you on Ash Wednesday, as Broadway members and friends join millions of Christians in the 40-day journey toward Easter morning.

El Salvador Mission Trip Set for June 6-13, 2020

Reserve a week of your 2020 vacation time and join us for our 2020 mission trip to El Salvador. The Broadway team will be working and learning during the week of June 6-13.

El Salvador is beautiful and complicated country. Her people living in rural communities often struggle to provide clean water, adequate housing and economic opportunities for her citizens.

Enlace el Salvador has been working in the rural, mostly evangelical churches in the countryside, to assist these motivated and hard-working people as they work to make their lives better. Broadway and Enlace have partnered for more than 11 years and multiple mission trips.

The mission work in El Salvador, and our ultimate destination for that work, will be determined as we get closer to June. The cost for airfare to San Salvador costs around $750/- $900; Mission and Outreach Ministry (MOM) will cover most, if not all, of lodging and food expenses for Broadway members.

If you would like more information, please contact Debby at 445.5312, or a member of MOM.

Answering Biblical Questions for Transgender Christians

Broadway is one of several faith communities who have come together to bring Biblical scholar, Austen Hartke, to speak on the Bible and transgender Christian. On Friday, February 21-Saturday, February 22, Austen will lead discussion of transgender issues at First Baptist Church.

The two-day seminar is free and open to the public. All are encouraged to attend to explore the reality of transgendering adults and Christian faith.

Austen is a graduate of Lutheran Seminary, with a Master's in Old Testament and Bible Studies. He works with adults who are trans or gender non-conforming, to help them see themselves in Biblical scripture.
