

EVERYBODY ALWAYS

Broadway SUMMER ONE READ!

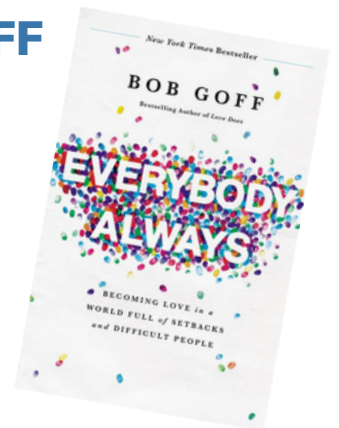

THE WHY

This summer, Broadway heads into a season of transition and transformation. A time such as this invites us to come together, pray together, learn together, and share together as we live into the unique joys and challenges of being community in the midst of change. This summer you are invited to do just that through our Broadway summer one-read.

THE BOOK: EVERYBODY ALWAYS, BY BOB GOFF

What if we stopped avoiding the difficult people in our lives and committed to simply loving everybody? What happens when we give away love like we're made of it? In Everybody, Always, Bob Goff's joyful New York Times bestselling follow-up to Love Does, you'll discover the secret to living without fear, constraint, or worry. Bob teaches us that the path toward the outsized, unfettered, liberated existence we all long for is found in one simple truth: love people, even the difficult ones, without distinction and without limits.

Everybody Always explores themes that are not only relevant for our faith, but speak wisdom into this season of transition at Broadway. Through story, scripture, humor and sincerity Goff invites Broadway to leverage the love of Jesus as we navigate the trials and transitions of being church in the midst of change.

HOW TO PARTICIPATE

1. Order a copy and read it on your own.
2. Use the book in your Sunday school class or small group.
3. Join the Everybody, Always study group on Sunday morning.
4. Form your own book group with friends. Set your own schedule and meet at times and locations convenient for you.
5. Read as a family using the the Everybody Always children's book. Join our "Park and Read" book club for kids where we read a story from the book and spend time playing at a park. We'll supply 1 free copy per family who wants one!
