Building On A 30-Year Foundation of Service to Habitat for Humanity

Habitat VBS Is Putting Out the Welcome Mat!

Thirty years ago, Broadway began its annual Habitat Sale on a challenge from Roger and Dixie Fisher to Mission and Outreach Ministry, just to “raise a few dollars” for our new Habitat affiliate. How does that saying go... “From tiny 2x4s, a mighty three bedroom house will grow?”....something like that!

In 2018, we celebrated 30 years of Habitat Sales by raising over $30,000. And now, Broadway children and their friends will celebrate once again, with a Habitat for Humanity themed Vacation Bible School, More Than A home!

If you have not yet registered your children for our July 23-26 VBS, there is still time! More Than A Home VBS is open to children who are age 4 through fifth grade and includes an all-day option for elementary-age children. VBS begins at 8:30 a.m. and will end at noon, Monday-Thursday. A $25 VBS registration is requested for each child. The extended day option is available for an additional $75 (includes all four VBS days!).

And, back by popular demand—off-campus activities for the older VBS kids (grades 3-5). This group of veteran VBSers will travel to Habitat work sites, build neighborhood “little libraries” and prepare Ronald McDonald House meals at Hy-Vee!

VBS Work Day Is July 15

This year’s VBS Work Day will be Sunday, July 15, from 12:15-3:00 p.m. in the Christian Life Center. A light lunch will be provided for volunteers who can help prepare VBS craft materials for the kids. Please let Aimee know if you can help at 445.5312.

VBS Supply Needs

Please see the list below for items that can be donated, or borrowed for use during VBS week. Please bring all items to church by July 15!

To Borrow (please label for return) : Hammers; wood clamps; Phillips and slotted screwdrivers; hand saws; saw horses; toy tools; toy tool bench; building blocks.

To Donate: Juice boxes (100% juice); scrap wood; glass beads; Legos.

Please return your VBS registration by Sunday, July 15, so that we can ensure an adequate supply of crafts, t-shirts and volunteers! Hope to see your little builder at Broadway’s More Than A Home VBS!

Friends and Family News

This summer we have been progressing through a series on the Table of the Lord – what it means to be a people of the Table, how it shapes and molds us. In the Christian scriptures it is rather astounding how often Jesus is portrayed at table and with whom. His meals became a sign of God's in-breaking reign and the fullness of one yet to be.

Of course, we celebrate the Table very differently than those earliest Christians. They shared a full meal in which they prayed, conversed and shared the stories and words of Jesus. In some places today the essential model for their Christian communities and house churches is “dinner church.” It is an astounding Back to the Future phenomenon.

For Disciples the Lord's Table is always central to our worship. In fact, that is one of our distinctive; along with prayer and praise, word and song, the Table is always present and open to all who seek to commune with Christ in community. One of the things we always claim is that there is always another seat at the Table, that there is plenty of good room. We are invited by the real host, Christ, for whom the rest of us are merely stand-ins.

As we move through the rest of this summer I challenge us all to think of particular people we might invite to the Table with us. They might be family members, friends, or acquaintances. Who is ready for that invitation and will you consider being the ambassador of grace for them? And then, as we rise out of the unique passage of summer into fall, we will make more room for them around the Table, one that is infinite and wrapped with the love of God.

Don Harter Continues to Pedal Across the USA

Don Harter just keeps pedaling! As of this writing, he has traveled well over 2000 miles, all under his own power—across rolling hills, the Rocky Mountains, the flat and tedious miles through the Kansas plains, and is preparing to cross into Missouri.

Don's journey will take him across ten states and over 4300 miles of U.S. roadways. Before beginning his bike adventure, Don decided to turn his trip into a funding opportunity for two of his favorite organizations—the Great Rivers Boy Scout Council and Enlace, our mission partner in El Salvador.

To keep it simple, a goal of one penny per mile was set, for a total of $4300. Don needs to raise a little more than $1000 to meet that goal! You can help by making a donation in the basket located in the Narthex, or using our on-line donation tab through Realm.

Help Don make his goal and please keep him in your prayers for safe travels—there are some dangerous critters on the road!

Critical Conversation Book Study Continues to Bear Fruit

Civil Rights Pilgrimage Planned for November

Rosa Parks' story did not begin with her refusal to give up her seat on a Montgomery bus to a white man—it was simply the part of her story that made headlines.

The story of the civil rights movement of the 1960s began decades before Ms. Parks refused to give up her seat, and there is much to learn about that history as well as the events of the 1960s. Growing out of the discussions and study of our Critical Conversation groups, a Civil Rights Pilgrimage is planned for November 9-13—exploring that tumultuous decade of change, the people who lived through it, and those who did not.

The Pilgrimage will be planned by the ministers of Broadway, First Baptist and Second Baptist. Final costs will be dependent on grant funding and support from each church, but it is estimated that the cost for travel, lodging and admission to historic sites and museums will be less than $300. Final costs for the trip will be available by October 1.

The Pilgrimage group will travel by chartered bus from Columbia to Memphis, Birmingham and Montgomery, AL. Along the way, there will be visits to the National Civil Rights Museum (Memphis); the Birmingham (AL) Civil Rights Institute; and in Montgomery (AL) over two days: the Dexter Avenue Museum; the Dexter Parsonage Museum; the Rosa Parks Museum; the Civil Rights Memorial; the National Memorial for Peace and Justice; and, the Legacy Museum for Enslavement Incarceration.

If you would like more information about the trip, please contact Tim Carson at 445.5312 or Don Day at 474.5539. Space will be limited to 40, so please check your calendars for the fall and make your commitment as soon as possible. Final details will be available this fall—but it is not too soon to put your name on the list now!

El Salvador Team Arrives Safely to Begin Week of Service

Broadway's El Salvador Mission Team has landed safely in San Salvador! During their week working alongside the local community members, the group will be constructing Eco-Stoves, as well as making home visits to local church members.

Please keep our team in your prayers this week as they share God's love and the Broadway Spirit with the people of El Salvador. They are sure to return with stories of inspiration from this very important week!

Bring Us Your Water and Stories

On September 9th (Sunday after Labor Day) services will include a short, traditional ceremony to Co-mingle Waters. This will be an opportunity for you to speak about any waters you visited, experienced and bottled this year in your journeys and to ceremoniously blend them with those collected by others. We want to hear about your experience at the water's edge. This is just a reminder to collect the waters in your summer travels.

Introducing Our New Summer Ministry Intern—Sort Of

Broadway is pleased to introduce our 2018 Summer Ministry Intern—Lily Fisher! And, yes, it is our own Lily Fisher!!

Lily has just completed her freshman year at UMKC, where she is majoring in music education. She is joining us for the remainder of the summer on a half-time basis, and will work with our Youth and Children's Ministries—areas that she is already very familiar with at Broadway! Lily will also be a part of the upcoming Youth Mission trip to Chicago—and we are so pleased to have her with us!

Youth Mission Team Will Serve in Chicago

This Sunday, July 8, our Youth Mission participants will come forward at the beginning of the 9:00 a.m. worship service and be blessed on their way by our congregation.

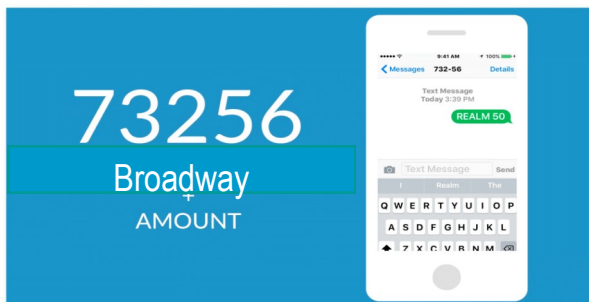

After the service, they will each find their way to the Broadway buses, and be on their way for a week of service in the urban heart of Chicago.

The 2018 Youth Mission Team will serve in Chicago during the week of July 8, working with the City Services Mission, a national mission organization which service many major cities in the United States. CSM's believes that short-term mission encounters can have a long-term impact—for both those who are served and for those who are serving.

During the team's week in Chicago, our youth will not only serve those in need, but learn important lessons about working cooperatively in a large group. The Team will be divided into work groups, sharing the duties of group living—like cleaning and cooking—but also sharing the responsibility for leading nightly devotional and worship time.

Please remember our youth and their leaders next week as they enter into a week of service and growing in faith.

Broadway's Summer Photo Album—So Far!

While things may slow down a little at Broadway during the summer months, there is still a lot going on! Our garden is growing, the VBS crew is hard at work preparing for a very busy week later this month, and we are all coming and going until we all settle in for the fall and football! Life in COMO and church at Broadway continue!

Broadway Gothic: Don Day and David Webber, a Broadway gardener.

VBS Drama (it's all good!) - Our team prepares for VBS leadership!

Annual Meeting and Potluck caps off another great year!

Field Day fun: It was perfect weather for a water slide (and stayed that way all of June!)

Immigration Discussion Continues July 15

Mission and Outreach Ministry will sponsor one more session to discuss today's immigration issues on Sunday, July 15, at 12:15 p.m. in the Fellowship Hall. A light lunch will be provided for those in attendance.

During the previous sessions, the Biblical context of immigration and "welcoming the stranger," as well as the historical background of the immigration issue were addressed. For this final gathering, the discussion will begin to examine how the church has responded in the past and is responding to recent events. Responses from the faith community are as varied as individual responses to the current crisis.

Please join us and be a part of this very important discussion. If you have questions about the previous sessions or would like to comment on the immigration issue, please contact Martha Jolly, Don Day or Tim Carson.

Check Our Broadway Farmer's Market for Fresh Produce

If you are a patron of the Columbia Farmer's Market, you know how much better fresh and local produce tastes—and how expensive it can be! At the Broadway Farmer's Market, the donated produce is just as fresh, and just as local—but all we ask is that you make a donation to support our Mission and Outreach efforts!

It is getting very close to tomato time, and Broadway is blessed with some fairly prolific tomato growers! Be sure to make the trip down to Fellowship Hall each Sunday, to choose what fresh veggies to take home. Simply bag up what you need and decide on your donation.

The Farmer's Market will continue through the growing season. Be sure to check for tomatoes, peppers and more all summer long!

Summer Garage Sales = Bargain Preschool Books!

And why should you be interested in bargain prices for preschool books?

Because Broadway

and Mission and Outreach Ministry are now Partners in Education with the Early Learning Center! The Center serves a variety of programs to prepare Columbia preschoolers for good starts in elementary school—Title I Preschool classrooms, Parents and Teachers, special education preschool classrooms and more!

So, while you are out looking for bargains at your neighborhood sales, be sure to look for gently used preschool books as well. You can bring them to the Fellowship Hall any Sunday, or drop them off in the office during the week. The more books we can collect, the better for these early learners and their families!

A Journey Through the Church's Liturgical Seasons

One of the ways Christians have presented the story of our faith is by presenting it through a series of predictable seasons scattered throughout the church year. The shape of these seasons evolved over several centuries. Since "liturgy" refers to the sacred work of the people in worship, the whole sacred year is referred to as the "liturgical year."

The congregations of the Disciples of Christ began observing the liturgical seasons late in our history; in earlier times each Sunday was pretty much like the next, except for Christmas and Easter. As we participated with the larger Christian community through the ecumenical (Christian unity) movement we became more acquainted with the richness of the ancient traditions and wove many of them into our own practices. It is our hope that a greater understanding of the church seasons will add richness to worship for all Christians, those new to the liturgical seasons as well as those very familiar with them.

So we have it:

Advent → Christmas → Epiphany → Lent → Easter → Pentecost → Ordinary Time (repeat)

The earliest beginnings of the church year began with Christians telling of story of Jesus' resurrection, Easter, and it was scheduled to fall on the Spring Equinox. In time they added the special week leading up to Easter called Holy Week. After that the forty day season of Lent was added preceding Holy Week. Lent begins with a day called Ash Wednesday. They also added a fifty day season following Easter called Eastertide. That leads all the way to the day of Pentecost, the day of the coming of the Spirit.

After several centuries Christmas was added on December 25 and it coincided with the Winter Solstice. They soon added a four-week season of expectation proceeding Christmas called Advent and a six-week season following Christmas called Epiphany.

To round out the liturgical year they added a long season following Pentecost called Ordinary time, a season given to reciting the life and teaching of Jesus and mission of the church. Ordinary time continues all the way to Advent and the story begins again.

We now have a seamless cyclical story that begins every Advent and continues for a year. These seasons are accented in a multi-sensory way with distinctive colors, stories, song, rituals and observances. Year after year practicing Christians are given the opportunity to grow spiritually deeper each time they experience these seasons. And sharing the cycle of seasons with other Christians binds them together in unique ways.

Advent – Color: Blue (traditionally affiliated with Mary and her carrying of Jesus). Advent is a season of expectation and preparation that leads to receiving Christ into the world and our hearts. The preparation of Advent focuses on hope and the trustworthy God who fulfills the promise to be with us. Since the focus of Advent is on the future activity of God our worship does not center on the birth of Christ ... yet. We anticipate that coming with trust and excitement. The God who comes always comes. In a sense, we are waiting with Mary for the glorious birth.

Christmas – Colors: White and Gold (symbolizing purity and supreme value). Christmas or the Nativity celebrates the incarnation or embodiment of God. The Word or Wisdom of God manifests as a human being and lives among us. (John 1:14) Traditionally the celebration of Christmastide continues for twelve days, the Twelve Days of Christmas. During this season we pray for a new birth to take within all of us.

Epiphany dramatizes the coming of the light of God into the farthest reaches of the world. The season begins with story of the Magi following the great star to Bethlehem. Epiphany is often known as the season of lights. The light of God fills the cosmos and we pray that the same light will be known in our deepest hearts.

Lent – Color: Purple (The color of royalty reminding us of Christ our king). Lent comes from the Latin word “lencton” and refers to the lengthening of days and awakening of our spirits. This penitential season is based on Jesus’ forty days of testing. Christians are challenged to reflect on their readiness to follow Jesus as their guide and example. The first day of Lent is Ash Wednesday, a day in which the church is reminded of our mortality, ways we miss the mark, and the need to turn back to God. Ashes are generally marked on the foreheads of worshippers as a sign of penitence. Lent is often the time baptismal candidates are prepared for baptism.

Holy Week. During Holy Week the congregation follows the footsteps of Jesus from the Palm Sunday entry into Jerusalem through the Last Supper of Maundy Thursday to his death on the cross on Good Friday. The three day unit from Maundy Thursday – Easter is called the Triduum. At the end of the Maundy Thursday service the sanctuary is stripped bare in preparation for Good Friday. The color of Good Friday is generally black and Christians traditionally fast on that day. As we traverse Holy Week and walk the way of sorrows with Jesus we experience the love of God poured out sacrificially for all human kind.

Easter – Colors: White and Gold (Symbolizing purity and supreme value)/. Easter is the celebration of the resurrection and the culmination of Holy Week. If Good Friday represents fasting then Easter is feasting; death is overcome and transcended by the life that will never die.

In the early church baptismal candidates fasted and prayed the preceding night during the Great Easter Vigil. Easter morning they donned their white robes and were baptized which was often followed by their first communion with the whole congregation. The white light of hope pierces the darkness of despair and death when Christ is risen.

Pentecost – Color: Red (symbolizing the fire of the spirit). Fifty days after Easter is the festival of Pentecost, originally a commemoration of the Law-giving. On Pentecost the Holy Spirit poured upon Jesus followers, overcame every humanly-made barrier and filled them with spiritual power for their future mission. We also wait and pray for the spirit so that the power beyond ourselves can direct and strengthen our lives.

Ordinary Time – Color: Green (representing growth)

Ordinary Time is the longest season of the year beginning with Pentecost and continuing all the way to Advent. The focus of this season is on living the Christian life and the church in mission. Its color, green, reflects an accent on growth in the faith. Life is a continuous journey of growth, changing, emptying and taking up great challenges for God. Through Christ in the power of the Holy Spirit we can do all things.
