Lent @ Broadway

The season of Lent is a deeply reverent and reflective journey for people of the Christian faith. Typically named as a forty day season from Ash Wednesday to Easter Sunday, this six week journey mirrors the deeply focused time Jesus spent in the wilderness prior to the launch of his ministry. Lent often includes special services, study, prayer, fasting and other spiritual disciplines. You are humbly and whole-heartedly invited to experience the gifts of the season with us at Broadway Christian Church. The following details some opportunities unique to the season:

Ash Wednesday: February 17

Noon – 1:00 p.m.: Reflective Prayer & Blessing Walk. Come to the Outdoor Worship Area at Broadway any time during the lunch hour to experience a guided prayer walk. Our pastors will guide each person through in a safe and socially distanced manner. There will be reflective practices, a moment fireside, and a blessing as you part that includes ashes to self-administer the sacred marking of the cross on your forehead. Each participant should allow 10-15 minutes for this experience.

6:00 p.m. – Virtual Worship Service. Join us on our YouTube channel for a thirty minute service including meditations by our pastors, Taize music, and the liturgical meaning of Ash Wednesday.

6:45-7:15 p.m. – Drive Through Ashes. For those not able to join the Noon prayer walk, our pastors will meet you under the covered portico in this thirty minute window following the virtual service to share an ash kit and offer a blessing. You will never have to get out of your vehicle!

Wednesday Windows

The five Wednesdays between Ash Wednesday and Holy Week will offer a brief mid-week meditation by our Pastors as they “Pray the Windows” of our city. Video Meditations will be shared via email by Noon each Wednesday and can be viewed at your convenience. Glean further insight into the Lenten season and join in the prayers at various windows of Columbia from City Hall, local schools, health departments and beyond. Opportunities for church members to partner with our Home Centered members in the sharing of these meditations are available and encouraged.

Easter Sunday: April 4

While the season will mostly feature virtual opportunities for worship and connection, the desire is to gather in-person on Easter Sunday, April 4, “On the Hill.” Weather permitting, this socially distanced, BYOC (Bring Your Own Chair/Communion) worship gathering will be held in our Outdoor Worship Space at 10:30 a.m. Masks and physical distancing required. Virtual Worship Options at our usual times will be available as well.

Introducing Our Lenten Sermon Series: Windows

We’ve been looking through windows for almost an entire year. COVID restrictions keep us separated. Most often our closest touch comes with a pane of glass between pressed hands. Such a pane has brought deep pain to so many isolated from the world with nothing but a windowed view of life on the other side of the window. Our faith is seen through a variety of windows as well. Scripture opens up helpful views for our spiritual, emotional and relational healing. The season of Lent is a deep dive into the window of the soul. What will we see? Through what lens will we see the world; each other; even Jesus the Christ? Join us on a forty day trek through the cross to the empty tomb in a series simply called, “Windows.”

Where Love Leads
BROADWAY CHRISTIAN CHURCH

My Regards...

The eagerness to put 2020 officially in the history books was one many shared. What a year!?! Thank God we were turning the page to a new year with new hopes, new health, and new possibility. Things looked so great. We were lining up to get vaccines, the Chiefs were primed for another Super Bowl run and Broadway was prepping to unleash a new Vision! 2020 was over. Problems left behind. Wide-open possibilities ahead of us.

Then? January. Insurrection at the Capitol. COVID soars. Missouri in the news for all of the less than flattering reasons. Yay, 2021?

The humble reminder crashed close to home: Change is hard and... change takes time. The reality is that hope comes alongside our hurts and works its healing process over time. All we imagined for 2021 is on its way. Will it end up looking like we thought from the start? Probably not. But it is coming.

Author Bob Goff plays a game with himself a dozen times a day. Whenever he walks into a new space, he tries to figure out where north is. He guesses and then pulls out his compass to confirm, or deny, his sense of direction. Beyond a fun game that has amused him over and over again, it tees up another question: "Where are you?" There's the obvious physical location. You're in your home; at the office; spilling coffee on this newsletter as you read. He speaks to the deeper question of where you currently are.

- Are you in a job that's sucking you bone dry, but you don't know how you'll pay rent or the mortgage without it? That's where you are.
- Are you in a toxic relationship but are so exhausted or have grown so codependent that you stay? That's where you are.
- Are you still believing you don't have what it takes to achieve your big vision? That's where you are.

Among the others Goff shared, that last one stopped me in my tracks. As we rolled out Broadway's new Vision during January, this location was present at the front of my heart, mind and soul. I said to myself: "Self, this is a big vision. Do we have what it takes?" That's where I was. Our identity statement, supporting core values and tagline seem spot on. You rallied together and have said, "Yes! This is who we are!" That was Vision Packet Page One. The ensuing five pages opened more eyes. What is this "Master Narrative?" and "Is that even possible?" It does paint a broad and wide picture of what we could become. An accompanying big gulp reading through it is understandable. Important to note, however, is that the presented Master Narrative is not a blueprint or a strategic plan. It's just an inspired story; a collection of ideas and dreams shared during a year long visioning process as a congregation. Our current Faith Formation groups are diving deeper into the Vision and creating their own Master Narratives as part of the inspired process. What joy!!!

Whatever story we live into as the people of Broadway, I pray it is one that stretches us, inspires us and challenges us to go beyond our comfort zones. God meets us on that frontier's edge and reminds us we have all we need within and among us to become all that Love will lead us to become. 2021 didn't magically make everything better, clearer, cleaner, or achievable. But... it's coming. While January held some of the same hurts of 2020, it introduced great hopes too. Poet Laureate Amanda Gorman reminds us, "We're not broken... just unfinished." Chad Henne clinches a win as Patrick Mahomes enters concussion protocol (#Hennethingispossible) and Patrick carries the Chiefs to another Super Bowl (BEL15VE!). And the Vision? Well... people are starting to see it. Dream it. Claim it. Own it. Become it. As the prophet Habakkuk says about such grand vision? "If it seems slow in coming, wait. It's on its way. It will come right on time." This is where we are. This, my friends, is hope.

Vision Still Rolling!

The long-awaited Vision roll-out is fully underway. January was a full month of receiving, discerning, and conversing about the information shared by our Vision Team. With more than 100 Broadway faithful engaging in weekly dialogue about the Vision via Faith Formation groups designed to accompany the series and small groups using the GPS Guides stimulating discussion around the same, we're uncovering good feedback and great energy driving us into the future.

Can you recite the tagline and core values yet? Here they are for reinforcement:

Tagline: Broadway Christian Church: Where Love Leads

Core Values: Broad Hearts. Broad Minds. Broad Reach.

Guiding Term: Broadening: to enlarge the range or magnitude of something, or become wider in range or magnitude.

Identity Statement: Broadway Christian Church exists to embody LOVE in a complex world.

The uncovering has just begun! Our existing ministry teams will be involved in an evaluative process next, considering how current ministry aligns with the growing vision. Following that evaluation, a strategic plan will be created, empowering Action Teams to begin the deep work of bringing identified priorities to life. Your ongoing prayers and engagement are coveted and necessary. Join the effort, Broadway! The best is yet to come!

Arise: For Middle and High School

The next virtual small group series for middle and high schoolers starting February 21st.

Journey with your friends to learn more about the season of Lent. We will spend time together with questions and in deep reflection. First session begins February 21, and ZOOM invites will be sent to your parent's email. Contact John or Taby with questions.

Broad Hearts, Broad Minds, and Broad Reach from A to Z

The virtual formation series, “Where Love Leads,” wraps up later this month, yet our sessions continue to bear much fruit. Our weekly gatherings have created some sacred space for participants to share, process, question, and imagine how we might be led by love and embody that love in our complex world.

One area that we have been processing together concerns our buildings, grounds, and facilities usage. We have been asking what may be needed so our facilities can better serve our vision and promote our core values. Many are excited about the prospect of new infrastructure that can house innovative ministry and promote effective outreach. Others have identified the importance of being good stewards of our existing footprint naming projects and priorities deserving of more immediate attention. Still others, mindful of a struggling economy and contracting trends among mainline Christianity, have expressed caution about initiatives that seek to remodel or expand during uncertain times.

As we process the brick and mortar implications of this bold vision it is helpful to first take a look at all the ways our current facilities are used in service to the church and wider community. To this end, Pastor Terry has created a wonderful snapshot of facilities usage from those enviable days of pre-pandemic church! We offer it here so that it may help raise our own awareness of the tremendous number of groups and needs our facilities serve as we pray, process and prioritize going forward.

No doubt, some ministry community uses have been left off unintentionally as we whimsically went through the 2020 planning calendar. If you are looking for your ministry and it isn’t here, say a prayer of gratitude that written or not, it is essential to who we are and how God is working in and through us. We thank you. We miss you. ~John and Terry

Continued Testaments for a Broad Vision

God brought me to a broad place at Broadway Christian Church many years ago. I have been at Broadway all my life. I have grown up in the Sunday school program, been active in the youth group, gone on mission trips, served in several roles in the church and recently have been involved with the Broadway Vision team.

Through my years at Broadway, I've come to know it as a place where love leads. I may not have always put it in these words, but after being on the vision team and really thinking about what Broadway means to me, I think this may be the best way to sum things up. After a bad wreck in 2001, I realized just how important Broadway is to me. During this experience, I truly felt the love that my church community had always offered but maybe I didn't recognize. Sometimes we don't see the value of a foundation until some of the structure is rattled. It was during this time that I came to know the care and support that Broadway offers.

I am excited about the vision the team has created and the direction it will take Broadway into the future. Broadway provides so much support both internally for our members and externally for our community. During the vision team discussions it became very apparent that members of Broadway want to continue to find ways to grow in our community of inclusion, diversity and mission. I look forward to the many ways that LOVE will lead Broadway into the future and out into the community and world.

Comeback from COVID!

2021 brought about an eagerness for a (new) normal reality for our daily living. While that hope is strong and a vaccine is on its way, we recognize this critical season of caution is still needed at this time. As the season of Lent approaches, our staff and ministry teams are planning meaningful ways to create virtual opportunities for connection as well as some in-person touch points as a community. Ash Wednesday will hold the first such experience. See our "Lent @ Broadway" article on page 1 for more details.

Our COVID team continually evaluates community experience and church practices with our staff team. We are eyeing the potential of an in-person Easter worship service "On the Hill" in our Outdoor Worship Area. Considerations for in-person gatherings post-Easter are now being discussed as well, subject to the impact of the virus come that time. We trust and believe an end to this pandemic is in reach and we so look forward to the marvelous reunion we will experience when we can be fully together again!

Join Us for the 23rd Annual Broadway Women's Retreat

As the last weeks of January approached, there was a stillness in our typical season of scurried preparations. In that pause, we asked, "Is there a window of opportunity for us to offer our annual Women's Retreat in a virtual way?"

Even before the Zoom meeting opened with the planning team, as each one entered in, the subject heading invitation of "Alas," was met with, "At Last!"

So, we are finding our way to you, and your hearts are making their ways to us. Emboldened by the power of the bear's embrace of last year, "There's no going around it, we are coming through!"

So fling open the window for women's gatherings and plan to be with us on our sacredly penciled and planned legacy date of the last Saturday of February, the 27th.

We have materials for 80 and the virtual retreat will be free for you. This opportunity is decidedly afforded by the generosity of your past donations to the Kim G. Ryan (our originating minister and friend) fund for Women's Retreat. We can't think of a better time to use these funds than the gifting of now!

The retreat will be self-guided for those without technology and we will have four touch points during the day for those with computer access. Either way, our hearts will be united on that day.

Join us in repose, inspiration, prayer, beauty and with a cup of soup, as we look Through the Pane.

Registration materials coming next week through email. If you haven't attended before, please send a message to Terry at toverfelt@broadwaychristian.net so we may include you in that communication!

Blessings to you Beloved!

"Church Family Caring for Church Family"

CareLink IS the Spirit of the Living God!

You know, sometimes things just seem to fall into place. Here's my latest example of just that. I was sitting in our kitchen last Sunday morning participating in the 10:30 virtual worship and I was thinking about what to say in this article. And then the musicians began singing one of my absolute favorite hymns, "Spirit of the Living God."

The first thing I noticed was that in their version of the lyrics, they sang, "Spirit of the living God, fall fresh on me." In my vast musical career as a youth group teenage singer around a campfire, we always sang, "fall afresh on me." It stuck in my mind all these years because it was unique. "Afresh" somehow sounded more sophisticated.

But what really struck me was, "This hymn is talking about CareLink at Broadway." It's describing "church family caring for church family," the very description of what CareLink's mission has always been. Of course the hymn, written in 1926 by Daniel Iverson, a Presbyterian minister, came long before CareLink. Yet this long-lasting chorus embodies a simple sincerity and its melody uses only five notes, with every pitch in its place. I think that's why I have loved it for so many years.

"Spirit of the Living God,
Fall afresh on me.
Melt me, mold me, fill me, use me.
Spirit of the living God,
Fall afresh on me."

All those CareLink volunteers can feel the spirit of the living God falling afresh. They know they have been molded, filled with God's love and that they are willingly used to comfort others in bereavement, to pray for them, call them, visit them, send them cards, sing for them, provide meals and shawls and flowers and handy helpers and support.

These past few months have brought many challenges to our CareLink volunteers but they're up for the challenges. They keep going because they are being filled with God's love. If you would like to join this loving group of volunteers who just don't ever quit, call the church office, or Patsy Dalton or Linda Poehlmann, CareLink co-chairs, and let that spirit of the loving God fall afresh on you. Now, that's a tune we can sing all day!

If You Will Trust in God to Guide You

HYMN of the Month: "If You Will Trust in God to Guide You"
CH 565

1 If you will trust in God to guide you, and hope in God through all your ways, God will give strength, whate'er betide you, and bear you through the evil days. Who trusts in God's unchanging love builds on the rock that will not move.

2 God will embrace your pain and weeping, your helpless anger and distress. If you are in God's care and keeping, in sorrow will God love you less? For Christ, who took for you a cross, will bring you safe through every loss.

3 Sing, pray, and keep God's ways unswerving; so do your own part faithfully, and trust God's word; though undeserving, you'll find God's promise true to be. God never will forsake in need the soul that trusts in God indeed.

Source: Chalice Hymnal, Georg Neumark, 1657; tr st 1,3 Catherine Winkworth, 1863; st. 2 tr Jaroslav Vajda, alt

We are entering this sacred season of Lent, a time to pause, deeply reflect, and commune with God. Lent gives us another opportunity to embrace all that it means to trust in God. Trust that God will give us strength to live these days and to help us change and grow. Trust is a familiar theme in both hymnody and praise song and that is not surprising. During times of trouble, difficulty, and pain, trusting God can be challenging. Having poetry and song to reference can be tremendously comforting. Certainly one text that has stood the test of time is Georg Neumark's If You Will Trust in God to Guide You.

Georg Neumark was no stranger to the many trials we can face during our lifetimes. He lived in Germany, during the time of the Thirty Years' War, a time of serious economic difficulty. It is also estimated that between 4-8 million people died by war, disease and famine (<https://www.history.com/topics/reformation/thirty-years-war>). He also fell into great personal misfortune, robbed of most of his possessions early in his adult life, struggled to find work, and then lost all of his possessions, again, in a fire at his home. It was at the end of this period that he composed the tune and wrote this text on trust. Catherine Winkworth (1827-1878), English hymn writer and educator, and a strong supporter of educational rights for girls, did the original translation. Our Chalice hymnal uses a translation by Jeroslav Vajda (1919-2008), American hymn writer and son of a Lutheran pastor, for the second verse of this hymn. His translation provides great hope in times of trial and assures us of God's love.

What is the promise? Trusting God gives us strength. God promises to embrace our pain, our helpless anger, our distress, our sorrow and promises love throughout our entire lifetime. The hymn also invites us to sing, pray and keep God's ways, and to do our part, whatever that may be. This Lenten season, let us renew our trust in God to guide us, and explore in new ways our place, our part, and our calling in God's world as well as in this faith community. Amen!

Prayer Requests Welcome

2020 has come to a close and our hearts and souls are reaching for healing and restoration in 2021. Fear not, for Jesus Christ our Lord has heard our corporate prayers lifted up through BCC's Intercessory Prayer Team. This team is faithful to pray every Wednesday concerning the needs of our BCC family and concerns in Columbia/Boone County affecting us all.

God has been faithful in this action of the prayer team's heartfelt intercessions. As we know, God never turns away from our earnest prayers, instead God embraces every prayer with LOVE and attention. If you or your family members need supportive prayer, our team welcomes every prayer request. Please know that all requests are kept confidential within the team. Contact the church office at 573.445.5312 or bcchurch@broadwaychristian.net to share.

Dixie Fisher and Cheryl Moore coordinate requests weekly with Ingrid and Patsy Dalton of CareLink. They also receive personal requests of BCC members for their loved ones going through challenges. It has been such a blessing to hear from members that no longer attend Broadway, but have their family contact us to place their loved ones on the prayer list. This is what it means to be a church where LOVE reaches near and far. Our prayer team members have spoken of feelings of comfort, peace, hope, and joy as they persevere in prayer for the needs of our church family.

Our Intercessory Prayer Team is 14 members strong. They find comfort in praying for other's needs. If you would like to join this prayer team, our team door is always open in invitation to make a difference in the lives of others. Please let Dixie Fisher know at 573.474.3417 or email her at rfisher003@centurytel.net.

Our team would like to extend our prayers to our BCC community for 2021 to bring restoration, peace, and a deeper love for all humanity. God's Blessings to All!
