

1. What connects you to Broadway? What might deepen that connection?
2. What is the soul of Broadway Christian Church? Who are we at our core?
3. If Broadway was starting over as a church today, what is the first thing you would suggest to be our starting focus? What would you NOT do if we were starting over?
4. Our denomination (and Broadway specifically) values diversity in every sense of the word including a broad welcome to all people. Do we currently represent this value well? If so, how? If not, how might we do so moving forward?
5. How is Broadway positioned to appeal and connect with the modern world?
 - i. How might we anticipate/facilitate issues of the day?

BONUS: What does Love require of Broadway moving into our next chapter?