

Kintisha Williams Biography

Kintisha Williams works as the Director of Corporate Relations for United Way of Tarrant County, a nonprofit leader that connects individuals and groups to charitable causes and organizations, to help solve some of the toughest social issues affecting Tarrant County. As the Director of Corporate Relations Manager, Kintisha provides concierge leadership and strategic direction to local corporations to help them achieve their philanthropic goals. Kintisha has experienced tremendous successes in her role and wholeheartedly believes there is no greater reward than making a difference in the lives of others.

Prior to joining United Way of Tarrant County, Kintisha spent many years serving victims of Domestic Violence as a Domestic Violence Advocate and the needs of youth in foster care as a Donation Drives Coordinator. In 2016, Kintisha made a life-changing decision to move from her home state Washington, to Fort Worth Texas, a decision that she says was worth every minute of the 31-hour drive. Kintisha is a fearless servant-leader, with a can-do attitude and has been a trailblazer wherever she goes.

Kintisha is active in her community and currently serves on the board of directors for the Fort Worth chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals, as the Co-Director of chapter programs. She is also a loyal contributor to many organizations throughout Fort Worth and adds: “serving my community is my calling, and I will do this by any means necessary!”
