

The Regional Children's Advocacy Centers are pleased to announce a training:

The Advocate's Role in the Multidisciplinary Response to Child Abuse

Training Details

This training covers the nine competencies set forth in the NCA standards and will include evaluation of an increase in skills and knowledge in those attending the training.

This training is appropriate for advocates with less than five (5) years of experience who take part in providing the constellation of services to children served by a children's advocacy center (CAC) across the country. This includes victim advocates employed by the CAC, working at a partnering District Attorney's office, and/or staff of a community-based organization.

This training will be offered four times annually with different start times due to the national audience and different time zones. Applications will open one at a time. Please see remaining trainings available for 2022 below:

MAY 11, 12, 18, 19, 2022 *Next training***
12:00pm - 6:00pm ET
