

Season of Creation

FILM SERIES

at

SAINT JOHN'S
CATHEDRAL
EPISCOPAL DIOCESE OF FLORIDA

256 E. Church Street | Downtown Jacksonville

Season of Creation FILM SCHEDULE

< Sept. 1 The White House Effect (FREE)

How acting on global warming was deliberately undermined.

4:30 p.m. Taliaferro Hall
A light supper, tea and water.
Film starts at 5 p.m.

7 p.m. Cathedral Taize prayer service

< Sept. 8 Public Trust (FREE)

The fight to protect America's Public lands

6:30 p.m. Taliaferro Hall
Q&A after the film with Vanessa Trujillo, Senior Conservation Program Manager, National Parks Conservation Association, and Jimmy Orth, Executive Director, St. Johns Riverkeeper

Sept 15 > Path of the Panther (FREE)

An Evening with Conservationist and Film Producer Tori Linder.

5:30 p.m. Reception with Tori
Film starts at 6:30 p.m.
Conversation and Q&A after the film

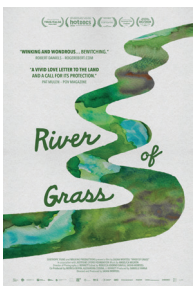

The film reveals the extraordinary beauty of Florida's wilderness and the urgent challenges of habitat protection.

< Sept 22 Out There: A National Parks Story

A phenomenal portrait of America's National Parks and the people who love them.

7 p.m. WJCT Studios 100 Festival Park
Registration required at wjct.org/film
St. John's Cathedral Green Spirits will have a table in the lobby. Stop by and say hello!

< Sept 29 River of Grass (FREE)

An ode to the Florida Everglades, told through the writings of Marjory Stoneman Douglas.

6:30 p.m. Taliaferro Hall
Vanessa Trujillo will share an update on the conservation efforts in the Everglades.

< Scan to register for the films and to see more events.

jaxcathedral.org/season-of-creation