Cursillo: Continuing the Work Christ Has Begun

Cursillo has been part of the life of the Episcopal Diocese of Florida for many years, bringing people together to deepen their relationship with Christ, strengthen Christian community, and consider more intentionally how God is calling them to live out their faith.

For some, the word Cursillo brings back memories of a weekend that became an important part of their spiritual journey. For others, it may simply be a word they have heard around the Diocese without quite knowing what it means.

At its heart, Cursillo is about Christian community, spiritual renewal, and living more fully into our call as disciples of Jesus Christ.

A Cursillo weekend provides time away from the routines and distractions of everyday life for worship, prayer, Christian teaching, reflection, conversation, fellowship, music, and community. But the ministry reaches far beyond the weekend itself. Cursillo encourages Christians to return to their homes, churches, workplaces, and communities prepared to live their faith with greater intention.

Please Pray for Cursillo #149

As we move into another season of Cursillo in our Diocese, we ask the entire diocesan community to join us in prayer for our upcoming weekends.

Men's Cursillo #149 — September 24–27, 2026

Women's Cursillo #149 — October 1–4, 2026

Both weekends will be held at Camp Weed & Cerveny Conference Center.

Please pray for those preparing to attend, the teams who will serve, their families, our clergy, the Camp Weed staff, and everyone working behind the scenes. Most importantly, pray that the Holy Spirit will be present in every conversation, prayer, act of service, and moment of worship.

Looking ahead, Cursillo #150 will be a Co-Ed weekend, March 18–21, 2027, at Camp Weed.

If you have been wondering about Cursillo, we would love to have a conversation with you. Visit diofl-cursillo.org, speak with a regional representative, or contact one of our Cursillo leaders to learn more about upcoming opportunities.

Your Fourth Day Still Matters

For those who have attended Cursillo, there is an important role for the Fourth Day community in sustaining this ministry.

Pray for our weekends. Encourage someone who may be ready to experience Cursillo. Participate in Ultreyas. Help keep Cursillo visible and active within your parish. Consider serving on a future team. Support the ministry with your time, gifts, and presence.

And share your story.

Sometimes the most meaningful invitation is simply telling someone how God used Cursillo in your own life.

Help Us Reconnect Our Cursillo Community

We are working to update our Cursillo contact information throughout the Diocese, and we need your help.

If you have attended Cursillo, please visit diofl-cursillo.org and complete the Contact Us form, especially if you have moved, changed your email address, or have not heard from the Cursillo community in some time.

In the message field, simply let us know that you are updating your Cursillo contact information and tell us the Cursillo number you attended, the Diocese in which you attended it, and whether you have changed parishes.

This will help us reconnect our Fourth Day community and strengthen communication across the Diocese.

Whether we are preparing for a weekend, gathering at an Ultreya, praying from home, serving on a team, or simply encouraging another person in their walk with Christ, we are all part of the continuing work of this ministry.

May we keep encouraging one another to move onward and upward in Christ.

Ultreya!
