Ross County Humane Society
hosting Bark in the Park Event Labor Day Weekend.

All day family event being held in Yoctangee Park to raise money for the shelter.

July 7, 2017: Families looking for some holiday fun Labor Day Weekend will be able to take advantage of Ross County Humane Society's "Bark in the Park" on, Saturday, September 2, 2017. The all day event will be held in Chillicothe's Yoctangee Park. The Humane Society believes the event will have something for everyone. There will be several food trucks and stands available for refreshment, a hotdog eating contest, bounce houses for the kids, a Chinese Auction, a car show hosted in conjunction with Ecstacy Customz, a beer garden with music at the Pump House, a Poker Run through scenic Southern Ohio in conjunction with Lost Tribe MC, as well as a fireworks display that will rival the 4th of July show, locally. The 2nd Annual Miles for Mutts Fun Run/Walk will also be held on September 2nd at the Hopewell Mound Group.

The festivities in the park will begin at 11 am and conclude at dusk with the fireworks show. Information including registration fees and times for the car show, poker run, and Miles for Mutts Fun Run/Walk can be found on the Ross County Humane Society Facebook page.

"We are hoping for a successful event that not only will benefit the Ross County Humane Society, but will also be a fun way for us to give back to the community that supports us throughout the year." says Executive Director Jenn Thomas.
