

The Rev'd Ron Abrams retired as Rector of St. James Parish in Wilmington after more than nineteen years. Before coming to St. James in 1999, Ron served as Rector of Holy Trinity Church in Fayetteville. from 1991-1999. Ron and Kathleen will continue to reside in Wilmington where their elder son, daughter-in-law and two grandchildren live. In this transition, Ron will pursue other opportunities for ministry in the diocese and national church including his work with parishes around financial development and capital campaigns as well as serving as a member of the national Project Resources faculty.