

The Rev'd Michelle Bullock

I am thrilled to serve as the Rector of St. Peter's by-the-Sea in Swansboro. My husband, Jonathan, and our two daughters Blythe (7) and Elvie (4) and I are moving back to North Carolina after spending the last few years in Pennsylvania where I served as the Lower School Chaplain at The Episcopal Academy in Newtown Square. I was born and raised in North Carolina, have a background in education and bleed Carolina blue. I have fond memories of leading youth retreats at Trinity Center and vacations with friends on the Crystal Coast. We couldn't be happier to be back home! Serving the loving people at St. Peter's has already been a great joy, and I'm looking forward to being a part of the Jesus Movement in the Diocese of East Carolina.
