

Russ E. Boltz

Russ E. ("Rusty") Boltz provides thorough and complete auditing services conforming to Diocesan and national standards to help protect parishes and assist clergy and vestries understand effective and efficient business practices expected of them. He is a 1969 graduate of Kalamazoo College (Michigan) and University of Notre Dame Law School and University of London (UK), receiving his Juris Doctor degree in 1972). He has been admitted to practice law in Michigan other courts since 1972 and has over 30 years of experience in accounting and auditing issues since 1985 for banks, charitable institutions, churches and the United States Government. He accepts engagements throughout the Diocese of East Carolina at approved hourly rates, which do not include hourly charges for travel from Oriental, North Carolina to the place of engagement.

rboltz@boltzlaw.net