

Having graduated in 2008 from The School of Theology with my MDiv, I was ordained to the priesthood in the Diocese of Alabama. I have served at two parishes, Church of the Ascension in Montgomery, Alabama, and Christ Church in Elizabeth City. Becky and I have been so blessed to be associated with these two loving and inclusive parishes.

The latest news is we've been called to serve at Church of the Transfiguration in Saluda, NC, which is in the Diocese of Western Carolina. Our last Sunday at Christ Church is January 13th, and our first Sunday in Saluda is February 10th. We celebrate the opportunities that Bishop Skirving and other diocesan leaders have given us to serve with our very capable colleagues in the Diocese, and we thank Canon Stockard for his support during this transition. We believe in the Diocese of East Carolina and Christ Church, and we have faith that the transition of the coming Search Process will be fruitful for all.
