Founder

*Ethical Markets Media
Certified B. Corporation*

Hazel Henderson, D.Sc.Hon., Fellow of the Royal Society of Arts, is the founder of Ethical Markets Media <http://www.ethicalmarkets.com>, LLC and the creator and co-executive Producer of its TV series.

She is a world-renowned futurist, evolutionary economist, a worldwide syndicated columnist, consultant on sustainable development, and author of The Axiom and Nautilus award-winning book Ethical Markets: Growing the Green Economy (2006) and eight other books.

She co-edited, with Harlan Cleveland and Inge Kaul, The UN: Policy and Financing Alternatives, Elsevier Scientific, UK 1995 (US edition, 1996), and co-authored with Japanese Buddhist leader Daisaku Ikeda, Planetary Citizenship (2004).

Fritjof Capra
Founding Director Center for Ecoliteracy

Fritjof Capra, Ph.D., is a scientist, educator, activist, and author of many international bestsellers that connect conceptual changes in science with broader changes in worldview and values in society.

Capra is a founding director of the Berkeley-based Center for Ecoliteracy, which is dedicated to advancing ecology and systems thinking in primary and secondary education

His most recent book, The Systems View of Life (Cambridge University Press, 2014), presents a grand new synthesis of this work—integrating the biological, cognitive, social, and ecological dimensions of life into one unified vision. Several critics have suggested that The Systems View of Life, which Capra coauthored with Pier Luigi Luisi, Professor of Biology at the University of Rome, is destined to become another classic.

The Earth Charter... involves...

It articulates the values and principles of sustainability and global citizenship, and can be used as an instrument to question our worldview through values examination and clarification.

The Earth Charter and its systemic approach

16 values and principles organized around four interdependent pillars.

The Earth Charter considers the ethic of Respect and Care for the Community of Life at the center of its approach.

It also considers the values of Democracy, Nonviolence and Peace as part of the sustainability agenda.
