

PLEASANTON POLICE DEPARTMENT PRESENTS:

Free books
to the first 200 to register!

Free Training: School and Juvenile Legal Issues, Drug Recognition and Threat

FREE TWO-DAY SEMINAR INCLUDES:

- Rights of School & Police Personnel: Managing your School Environment
- How to Build & Maintain an Effective Threat Management System including Suspicious Activity & Behavior Recognition (SABeR)
- Drug Recognition and Identification to deter and combat drug abuse
- A-Z course on search, seizure, gang intervention & diversion, police authority, off-campus conduct, and much more!

REGISTER BY EMAIL:

Email name, rank/position and agency/school district to raina@cityofpleasantonca.gov
(925) 931- 5210

This free training is intended for School Resource Officers, Juvenile Detectives, School Administrators, Campus Supervisors/ Monitors and Youth-Community Based Organizations.

AUGUST 1ST– 2ND, 2017

8:00 A.M.— 5:00 P.M.

(CHECK IN AT 7:30 A.M.)

Dublin High School Center for Performing Arts & Education

8151 Village Pkwy, Dublin, Ca, 94568

Free Campus Parking

PRESENTER:

DR. JOHN MORE, J. D.
Response Law Incorporated

Dr. More is a nationally recognized expert on school campus law and procedures who has an exemplary list of references and recommendations. Mr. More has 16 years of experience training thousands of School Resource Officers, School Administrators and School Security Personnel across the United States. His presentation and its content has previously been certified by the California Police Officers Standards and Training (POST). Those who have attended his presentations praise his expertise and presentation abilities.

Special Thanks to our Contributors:

Alameda County DA's Office, Dublin Police Services &
Dublin Unified School District