Nonprofit Leadership Class Focuses on Creating Equitable Representation

CINCINNATI -- Leadership Council is pleased to announce its BOLD 5 class, the most diverse cohort since the program's inception in 1991. "BOLD 5 is the result of great efforts to create more equitable and inclusive nonprofit boards. We are increasing the accessibility of nonprofit board training throughout our city", said Jenny Berg, Executive Director of Leadership Council for Nonprofits. The BOLD 5 class roster is available on Leadership Council for Nonprofit's website. Registration for the three future 2021 BOLD classes is now open.

Leadership Council for Nonprofits and its strategic partners, like Black Achievers, Cincinnati Cares, and the Hispanic Chamber of Commerce encourage Cincinnati and Northern Kentucky companies to take notice of this leadership development opportunity for their employees. Companies like Michelman, Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP, BKD CPAs & Advisors, and Ignite Philanthropy are already "on board" as BOLD Employer Sponsors.

BOLD (Board Orientation + Leadership Development) is Greater Cincinnati's leading nonprofit board training program. Our purpose is to provide a transformational board leadership development experience to educate and empower local leaders to serve boldly. At BOLD, a program of the Leadership Council for Nonprofits:

- We prepare participants for meaningful nonprofit board service.
- We connect diverse leaders to a network of more than 200 local nonprofits and hundreds of BOLD alumni.
- We advance company goals through leadership development, diversity and inclusion, recruitment and retention, sustainability, and corporate responsibility.
- We strengthen the community through a commitment to inclusive and diverse nonprofit leadership.

Employer Sponsorship opportunities are available by contacting bold@leadershipcouncil.us or 513-554-3060. Employer Sponsors include Michelman, Taft Stettinius & Hollister LLP, BKD CPAs & Advisors, and Ignite Philanthropy.
