Dr. Jessica (Jessie) Yanson

Assistant Professor, University of North Florida Department of Public Health, Clinical Mental Health Counseling Program

Advancing Counselor Education Through Relational Theory, Technology, and Empirical Inquiry

This presentation highlights a theory-driven, technology-enhanced research agenda designed to advance counselor preparation and workforce readiness. Grounded in Relational Cultural Theory and Ecological Systems Theory, it showcases a scalable video-based intervention that significantly improved counselors' knowledge and self-efficacy when working with gifted and talented adolescents and their families. The talk emphasizes innovative, evidence-based approaches to addressing gaps in professional preparation for underserved populations and outlines future research, teaching, and funding directions with potential for interdisciplinary collaboration.
