Jeoung Min Lee, PhD

The Impact of Cyberbullying Victimization on Psychosocial Behaviors among College Students: The Indirect Effect of a Sense of Purpose in Life

Dr. Jeoung Min Lee is an Assistant Professor in the School of Social Work at Wichita State University. She received her MSW at SoonSil University, her M.S. at Michigan State University, and her Ph.D. at Wayne State University. Her research interest includes peer victimization and cyberbullying victimization associated with mental and behavioral outcomes, such as trauma, substance abuse, risky sexual behaviors, self-harm, and suicidal behaviors among ethnic/racial minority and LGBTQ youth and college students. Thus, she has examined the risk/protective factors for bullying and cyberbullying victimization's mental and behavioral health among minorities that will contribute to developing a culturally relevant intervention program.
