September 27-28, 2022
USF Tampa campus
Marshall Student Center

This Great Power Competition Conference will focus on threats and challenges confronting U.S. national security and policy due to Russia's invasion of Ukraine.

Over the two days, we will explore critical questions facing the U.S. in the wake of this seismic shift in the region: How will the conflict affect the great power competition, and what happens after the Russian invasion? How will it influence Russian and U.S. strategy and foreign policy in the Middle East and Central Asia?

Speakers and panels feature subject matter experts and topics from academia, government and the private sector, for deeper strategic understanding of this critical national security issue.
