

VIRTUAL WEBINAR: THE TOKEN OPENER: MOVING LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS FROM A "STATEMENT" TO AN ACTION.

Presented by School of Social Work Faculty:
Dr. Tiffany Randall

A one-hour virtual training focused on enhancing cultural responsiveness when working with Indigenous peoples. The session will explore the purpose and impact of land acknowledgements, their role in reconciliation and healing, and practical ways to integrate them meaningfully into professional practice.

Participants will also examine key issues related to social and environmental justice, trauma, and Indigenous culture, gaining tools to strengthen cultural humility, advocacy, and respectful engagement in their work.

Wednesday,
19 November 2025

6:00 - 7:00PM
Register below!

SCAN

