

How to Publish Behavioral Health Evaluation and Research in Peer Reviewed Journals

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 2ND AT 1PM ET

Are you a behavioral health researcher or practicing evaluator who is curious about publishing in academic peer reviewed journals?

Join us for a virtual webinar on Tuesday, December 2nd at 1 PM ET. Hear directly from editorial staff at Substance Use & Misuse and the Journal of Behavioral Health Services & Research about how to get started with publishing in the behavioral health field. This webinar will help you:

- increase your visibility as a scholar-practitioner
- learn about what editors look for
- understand how the review process works
- improve your chances of getting your work accepted and published

SUBSTANCE USE & MISUSE

MICHAEL MARANDA

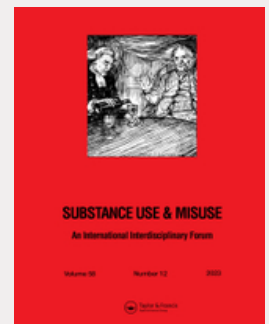

Associate Editor

ARCHER LEE-ESTON

Associate Editor

JENNIFER UNGER

Interim Editor-in-Chief

JOURNAL OF BEHAVIORAL HEALTH SERVICES & RESEARCH

KIMBERLY MENENDEZ

Managing Editor

BRUCE LUBOTSKY LEVIN

Editor-in-Chief

HOSTED BY THE AEA BEHAVIORAL HEALTH TIG

ANNA DAVIDSON ABELLA

BH TIG Chair, Webinar Moderator

REBECCA HEILMAN

BH TIG Program Chair, Webinar Support

Scan the QR Code or click on the link to register now and discover how to move your work from practice to publication.