SOUTH FLORIDA

College of Behavioral & Community Sciences
School of Aging Studies

Older adults in the community in need of care and support struggle with loneliness and social connections post-COVID, which can affect their health and well-being.

Attend this one-day conference to understand the problems facing older adults and their caregivers across the care continuum (community, assisted living, nursing home, and hospice) from health and aging service professionals and learn about services and resources to address issues related to loneliness, social isolation, grief, and bereavement.

FREE to attend | $75 to earn CE hours, with a $10 discount for community partners Chapters Health, Empath Health, and Moffitt Cancer Center | $50 for an exhibitors table (includes 2 admissions)
