

Request for forensic audit of Robbinsdale Area School District 281

We are requesting that the Office of the State Auditor conduct an immediate forensic audit of the Robbinsdale Area School District's 2015-18 Fiscal Years to determine whether the District Administration may be using unacceptable practices, procedures, and policies to manage its finances, human resources, and facilities.

We specifically are asking the Board to audit the following:

- 1. Overall quality, accuracy, and transparency of financial reports provided to the School Board, the public, and the Legislature by the Superintendent and District Administration.
- 2. Legitimacy of increasingly growing District deficits.
- 3. Oversight for the proper use of government funds.
- 4. Turnover of Directors of Finance.
- 5. Employment practices.
- 6. Administrative/faculty/custodial staff ratios.
- 7. Executive and management use of automobiles, District credit cards, and other district resources and paid time.
Legitimacy of increasingly growing District deficits.
- 8. School Board policies and procedures regarding Superintendent performance evaluation.
