BOE Question - Is there one place that the BOE and parents can go to get information about the changes to grading practices?

Yes - The Academics Page on the D86 website contains:

- Short Overview of Common Grade Scale and Grade Weight Category Framework
- Executive Summary Presentation of Grading Practices for the BOE
- Administration Memo to the BOE that includes October data of grades as well as the various communications about grading practices from the District and Buildings about progress toward common grading practices.
- Updates and reports like these once they are presented to the BOE
