New Course: Computer Science Camp

- The camp is open to all students enrolled in the district entering grades 9-12.
- The camp will run everyday in person and online.
- Students working online will be working more independently without constant supervision.
- The teacher will be available at the beginning and end of each class for online support/questions.