Helping Boys Heal from Trauma and Toxic Masculinity

Boys are caught in storms of trauma — whether stemming from abuse, poverty, substance use, grief and loss, trauma exacerbated due to Covid-19, racism, relationship difficulties, and violence.

This workshop is designed to equip parents, concerned adults, and helping professionals with awareness and strategies to help boys heal from trauma and toxic masculinity.

Presented by Dr. Anthony C. Hill, Ed.D., MSW

Dr. Anthony (Tony) C. Hill, Ed.D., MSW is a tenured, associate professor and chair of the Social Work Department at Springfield College School of Social Work and Behavioral Sciences at Springfield College, Springfield, MA.

Joint Program of

Fathers & Family Network South Coast and United Neighbors of Fall River

The Fathers and Family Network is a statewide networking and training group for professionals who work with fathers. The group helps professionals enhance skills, learn new strategies for engaging fathers, and coordinate services across the state.

United Neighbors of Fall River is dedicated to supporting children and strengthening families by coordinating resources already in the community and creating activities, programs and coalitions that empower residents and build partnerships.
