

Native Bee Workshop

by Tracy Lansdell

of Green Tree Naturopathy

Wednesday 15th January 2020, 2pm – 3.30pm

Followed by afternoon tea supplied by the CWA Ladies

Discover the importance of native bees in our environment.

Find out how to attract native bees to your garden (the bonuses are beautiful diverse flowers & more productive fruit & veg!).

Create an upcycled NATIVE BEE HOTEL for your garden - more bee-friendly & successful than the ones in shops!

This hands-on workshop will include an informative 35-minute talk followed by the Bee Hotel creating activity.

We welcome 5 to 105 year-olds, children under 8 must be accompanied by someone over 15 years due to using sharp tools.

All materials are supplied & you will take home your mini Bee Hotel and a handout filled with bee gardening tips.

Cost: $10 per head

Held outside at our CWA Rooms: Corner Lucas and Rosa Glen Rds, Rosa Glen
