

What does the Bible say about Conscious Discipline?

The Seven Powers for Self-Control	The Seven Basic Skills of Discipline	Seven Essential Life Values	Seven Basic Social Skills
Power of Perception: No one can make you mad without your permission	Composure: Becoming the person you want children to be	Integrity	Anger Management
What The Bible says: Story of Jonah: Jonah 4 Ephesians 4:26,31 “In your anger do not sin. Do not let the sun go down while you are still angry. Get rid of all bitterness, rage and anger, brawling and slander, along with every form of malice.
Power of Unity: We are all in this together	Encouragement: Building a school family	Interdependence	Helpfulness
What The Bible says: Psalm 133, Acts 4:32, Romans 12:5 So in Christ we who are many form one body, and each member belongs to all the others, Ephesians 4:5,28-29
Power of Attention: What you focus on, you get more of	Assertiveness: Saying “no” and being heard	Respect	Assertiveness
What The Bible says: Philippians 4:8 Finally, brothers, whatever is true, whatever is noble, whatever is right, whatever is pure, whatever is lovely, whatever is admirable—if anything is excellent or praiseworthy—think on such things
Power of Free Will: The only person you can make change is yourself	Choices: Building self-esteem and will power	Empowerment	Impulse Control
What The Bible says: Genesis 2-3 God gave Adam and Eve the free will to choose.
Power of Love: See the best in others	Positive Intent: Creating teaching moments	Diversity	Cooperation
What The Bible says: 1 Corinthians 13 If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels, but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal. If I have the gift of prophecy and can fathom all mysteries and all knowledge, and if I have a faith that can move mountains, but have not love, I am nothing. If I give all I possess to the poor and surrender my body to the flames, but have not love, I gain nothing. Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will cease; where there are tongues, they will be stilled; where there is knowledge, it will pass away. For we know in part and we prophesy in part, but when perfection comes, the imperfect disappears. When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child. When I became a man, I put childish ways behind me. Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. And now these three remain: faith, hope and love. But the greatest of these is love.
Power of Acceptance: The moment is as it is	Empathy: Handling the fussing and the fits	Compassion	Empathy
What The Bible says: Ephesians 4:32 Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.
Power of Intention: Conflict is an opportunity to teach	Consequences: Helping children learn from their mistakes	Responsibility	Problem Solving
What The Bible says: Jesus’ parables, The thief’s death on the cross next to Jesus—he was saved eternally, but he still suffered the “earthly” consequences of his actions.
