From Raven Hollow Winery
Aren't all fruit wines sweet?

Fruit wines don't have to be sweet! Fruit other than grapes tends to be quite acidic, so adding some sweetness to the wine can help balance out that harsh acidity. That's one of the many decisions a fruit winemaker gets to make!

Our wines range between 2%-3.5% residual sugar, but our wine is surprisingly not too sweet; instead they are nicely balanced with the natural acidity of the fruit. Our fruit wines are light, crisp and refreshing!
