Remembering The Past While Celebrating Our Future

A Message from the Chair...

Rosanne McGuire

Dear Friends of Old World Wisconsin,

Chairing the Old World Wisconsin Foundation board for the last three years has been an honor. Being part of the board when we helped support and provide furnishings for the building of the Brewhouse was a joy. Watching the Wittnebel Tavern come back to life with the support of so many friends of Old World Wisconsin, and helping furnish the interior is something we all should be proud of. Delighting our Wisconsin friends when we tell them there is a Brewhouse, Tavern and Biergarten at Old World...priceless!

A lot has changed since that 4th grade field trip you either attended as a student or chaperoned. As the new Welcome Center is built and sites continue to be more interactive in keeping with today's historical displays around the country—there will be changes. What won't change is the future the Old World Foundation Board of Trustees has envisioned: A future where lessons of the past ignite curiosity, inspire learning, and foster a deeper understanding of our diverse cultural heritage through impactful giving.

I wanted to thank several of our outgoing trustees for their guidance. Jennifer Johnson and Jennifer Motzko have fulfilled their terms as trustees, and we will miss the input they have provided over the past three years. Kris Koeffler left the board earlier this year, after establishing one of our endowment funds. Jean Theis, a fantastic ambassador for the foundation is leaving after six years on the board.

Jean has been a constant presence at Old World Foundation events, with her husband Ron at her side and she has worked tirelessly on Sunset Soiree each year.

I can't close this without extending my gratitude to Old World Foundation Executive Director Gwen Griffin and Bookkeeper Robin Oldenburg. Their hard work and responsible stewardship of the foundation is remarkable. Most of all, thank you for your support of Old World Foundation. As we head into our 42nd year, we look forward to the 50th anniversary of Old World Wisconsin and continuing to tell the stories of the past as we shape the future.

Thank You from Old World Foundation

Gwen Griffin

As we conclude our 41st anniversary as the independent, non-profit partner of Old World Wisconsin, we look forward to the future. In 2026, Old World Wisconsin will be celebrating the 50th anniversary of their opening and we are proud that our Friends have provided over $10 million in support since our inception, but the need continues. I can't help but wonder if Old World Foundation's founders ever imagined the impact our Friends would have on this dynamic historic site.

History is comprised of facts, but it is the stories of people and communities surrounding the facts that bring history to life. Old World Wisconsin's mission is to create immersive spaces and interactive experiences that are memorable, inspire curiosity, and foster understanding. They recognize that the stories of the past share universal themes of perseverance and forming community. Looking to the future, these stories remain relevant and must be accessible to all guests. Conserving the heritage breeds, planting heirloom gardens, maintaining historic buildings and creating new, engaging programs that explore different cultures and stories will continue, and the need for financial support will continue.

I am proud of Old World Foundation's mission to responsibly fund the advancement of Old World Wisconsin. I share our vision where lessons of the past ignite curiosity, inspire learning, and foster a deeper understanding of our diverse cultural heritage.

YOU, my Friends, make an impact with your gifts.

We are honored that you have trusted Old World Foundation to be good stewards of your gifts. As you look through this Annual Gratitude Report, I hope that you will get a sense of how your support has enhanced programs and completed projects at Old World Wisconsin this past fiscal year. I am looking forward to Old World Wisconsin's 50th anniversary year, and I am looking forward to your continued Friendship.

Cheers to the future of history at Old World Wisconsin!

Gwen H. Griffin
Executive Director
Old World Foundation

Trustees in Action

The OWF Trustees helped greet guests at OWW on Independence Day and during the Halloween Legends and Lore & Home For The Holidays events this past fiscal year.

Your Impact this Past Year...

Old World Foundation exists to fill the funding gap between what Old World Wisconsin receives in state support and earned revenue and what is needed to enhance programs and complete projects. Each year, the foundation applies for grant funding, hosts an annual fundraising event, develops partnerships with area companies, and accepts donations from individuals who are passionate about OWW. Gifts can be restricted to use for specific projects at Old World Wisconsin or unrestricted to use where needed most. Unrestricted gifts give the foundation the flexibility to direct funds to different projects and programs at Old World Wisconsin as needs and priorities change.

Old World Foundation typically fills needs in the following areas:

- Animal Program (conservation of heritage breeds)
- Gardens & Landscapes (heirloom gardens, herb gardens, trail enhancements)
- Historic Preservation (building maintenance needs)
- Events & Programs (special events on site and daily programming)
- Education & Outreach (school tours, summer camps, community outreach programs)
- Collections & Period Clothing
- Other immediate needs, such as furnishing the Brewhouse and Tavern.

As you can see from the chart below, this past fiscal year, the majority of our support was used for events and programming and the animal program. A total of $140,711.28 was given to Old World Wisconsin by Old World Foundation based on their requests for funds in the 2024-2025 fiscal year.

YOUR SUPPORT feeds animals, educates children, plants gardens, maintains buildings, and creates lasting memories for families all while preserving and sharing the rich stories of our ancestors.

Thank you!

Chair's Challenge: A New Vision for Black History

Old World Wisconsin opened in 1976 as a living history museum that shared stories of settlers who came to Wisconsin. There are many culturally diverse stories to be told. Enslaved and free African and African Americans lived, worked, and built community in Wisconsin. Old World Wisconsin is now revisiting stories from the Pleasant Ridge community in Grant County's Beetown Township. A reproduction of the United Brethren Church along with a cemetery chapel from Pleasant Ridge are located at Old World Wisconsin. Old World Wisconsin would like to enhance this experience into a dynamic attraction and celebrate the many stories of the rural Black families whose bounty, labor, and livelihood made this place home.

Thanks to the generosity of our Friends, the 2024 Chair's Challenge raised $36,166.39 before the event and an additional $15,000 after the event for a total of $51,166.39 to enhance the stories told in the Pleasant Ridge area of Old World Wisconsin.

We are thankful for our Sunset Soiree Committee and additional volunteers who made
this event successful!

With Sincere Gratitude, we recognize all who donated to the Chair's Challenge to enhance the Pleasant Ridge area and the stories of Black History at Old World Wisconsin!

Sharing the story of Lavinia Goodell

In August 2024, Old World Foundation hosted a program celebrating Lavinia Goodell's admission to the Wisconsin bar 150 years ago, making her the state's first woman lawyer. The program featured a historical reenactment of Lavinia Goodell's groundbreaking challenge against Chief Justice Edward Ryan, debating a woman's right to practice law versus remaining confined to domestic duties.

We were honored to have Governor Tony Evers and Justice Ann Walsh Bradley with us for this event.

Our thanks to the performers!
