LEBANON-Bring your children to the jungle this fall to watch Mowgli the man-cub come face-to-face with sneaky monkeys, noisy vultures and more when Cincinnati Playhouse in the Park brings THE JUNGLE BOOK to LTC on 10/28/2018 at 2:00 p.m. as part of its Off the Hill series. The theater is located at 10 S. Mechanic Street in Lebanon, Ohio.

The new adaptation of Rudyard Kipling's beloved story features a rambunctious, curious and silly Mowgli who is lost in the wilds of the jungle, where he is adopted by Baloo the bear, Bagheera the panther and all the beasts who call the mysterious wilderness home.

Greg Banks' script plays on the nostalgia of Kipling's tales while providing a modern, fast-paced retelling for audiences. A cast of only five actors (from the Playhouse's Bruce E. Coyle Acting Intern Company) will fill 20 scripted roles in this adventurous production.

It is an exciting tale in the Indian jungle. A story about a young boy who is facing the challenges of growing up. The new adaptation is perfect for children and families to enjoy together. It is recommended for ages 6 and up.

Visit www.LTCplays.com to purchase tickets. $5 - children $10 - adults.
