Whether you're participating in an Action Team, supporting an initiative, a parent advocate, a superintendent, a teacher or counselor, this Summit is your chance to engage with each other across the Cradle to Career continuum. At this event you can expect to:

- Engage in an important, county-state-national movement to end educational inequity.
- Understand the Partnership's collective impact approach and how to fit in.
- Experience the whole network together in action.
- Explore data and tools to be inspired into action.

This summit will follow and build on the Education Equity Forum with Tony Thurmond on August 29th. To put talk into action, come to the Cradle to Career Partnership Summit.
