A PUBLICATION FOR BAYSTATE HEALTH TEAM MEMBERS

Team Member Experience

Make Your Nominations for Baystate's First Annual Culture & Values Awards!

There is no better way to sustain the great things about Baystate's culture and values than to recognize those who are living them each day. In an April awards ceremony, colleagues across the organization will be recognized in the categories of Respect, Integrity, Teamwork, Lifelong Learning, Compassionate Connections and Equity & Belonging. These awards will be selected by a diverse panel of judges, from recent Baystate Celebrates recognitions.

Additionally, your nominations are being sought for the following awards, with a deadline of Monday, February 20:

Provider of the Year: Open to physicians and APPS who consistently model Baystate's values and desired culture in service to Baystate's mission of improving health with quality and compassion. Nominate a provider now.

Employee Ambassador of the Year: Open to all team members who consistently serve as models of Baystate's values and desired culture in support of Baystate's mission. Nominate a colleague now.

Serving Leader of the Year: Open to leaders of people who consistently exemplify the serving leader attributes of trust, respect and inclusivity as they build a common vision and purpose with their team and beyond, in service to Baystate Health's mission. Nominate a leader now.

Team of the Year: Open to a team that consistently strives to model Baystate's values and desired culture, especially exhibiting the core value of teamwork supporting the team's purpose and Baystate Health's mission. Nominate a team now.

The April Culture & Values Awards ceremony also kicks off a new monthly program to spotlight team members making a difference.

"We are a purpose driven organization that has focused on our mission of community health with pride for generations," says Mark A. Keroack, MD, MPH, adding, "Our people are doing outstanding, meaningful work and these awards provide Baystate Health with a way to celebrate our pride, to say thank you to those who exemplify our culture and values, and to inspire others as we continue to deliver our mission in new and exciting ways."
