

Connections

A PUBLICATION FOR BAYSTATE HEALTH TEAM MEMBERS

Molly Ingemi, MD, Population-based Urban and Rural Community Health Class of 2022, has received the inaugural Anthony P. Lovell MD Memorial Endowed Award for Excellence. The award honors the outstanding achievements of a graduating medical student from UMass Chan Medical School-Baystate who is returning to Baystate Health for residency training—and who is committed to serving the community, providing highly skilled and deeply compassionate medical care to patients, and shows great promise for a remarkable career in medicine.

Baystate Franklin's Wound & Hyperbaric Medicine Center received the Center of Distinction award by Healogics, the nation's largest provider of advanced wound care services. The Center achieved outstanding clinical outcomes for twelve consecutive months, including a patient satisfaction rate higher than 92 percent.

For the sixth consecutive year, Baystate Medical Center has been recognized as "Best Local Hospital" in The Republican and MassLive's Reader Raves contest.

Two of Baystate Health's Annual Reports have won top international awards from The League of American Communications Professionals (LACP) in their 2021 Annual Report Competition. The Platinum (highest) award was given to both Baystate Health's 2021 Annual Report and the Baystate Medical Center 2021 Nursing Report in their categories. Baystate Health's Marketing & Communications department was also selected as a finalist in the Change Communication category of Ragan's Employee Communications Awards for employee communications efforts on Baystate Health's Daily Management System (DMS).

Two Baystate Health team members received 2022 Howdy Awards for Hospitality

Excellence. Reference Lab Phlebotomist Latrina Haynie won in the Public Service category and Jose Guzman, a Valet Park of America valet attendant at Baystate Medical Center, won in the Transportation category. Congratulations also to finalist Serena Curley, concierge at Baystate Medical Center!

Baystate Health's Black Employees Connecting (BEC) Business Resource Group received an Honorable Mention from Ragan's Corporate Social Responsibility & Diversity Awards in the DE&I Campaigns/Initiatives>Employee Resource Groups (ERGs) category. Ragan's CSR & Diversity Awards celebrates the teams, organizations and agencies whose work is positively impacting communities, whether internally, locally or globally.

Connections

A PUBLICATION FOR BAYSTATE HEALTH TEAM MEMBERS

Congratulations to Reginald Aloudior, MD, medical director of Trauma Service for Baystate Health, who has been appointed vice chair of the ACS Massachusetts Committee on Trauma.

The UMass-Chan Medical School chapter of the Gold Humanism Honor Society (GHHS) presented two doctors affiliated with the Population-based Urban and Rural Community Health (PURCH) track at UMass Chan-Baystate with the Leonard Tow Humanism in Medicine Award. Elizabeth Eagleson, MD, Faculty Award Winner and Bronwyn Wada-Gill, MD, Student Award Winner were honored for their integrity, excellence, collaboration, compassion, respect, empathy, and service.

The work performed by a UMass Chan-Baystate PURCH (Population-Based Urban and Community Health) medical student and a research team helped form the FDA's guidance for Americans on the use of rapid COVID-19 tests. Carly Herbert, MD/PhD student, is a student investigator and the first or second author on six publications related to her work as a research assistant for the National Institutes of Health Rapid Acceleration of Diagnostics (RADx) Tech program.

Baystate Medical Center has received the 2022 Corporate Champion Award from the Alzheimer's Association of MA/NH. The award recognized BMC's efforts to serve persons and families with Alzheimer's, most notably the Memory Disorders Program.

Christian Sikora, NP has been named Hospitalist of the Year at Baystate Franklin Medical Center. The award from the Hospital Medicine team is presented each year to the hospitalist who displays outstanding patient care, excellent interdepartmental relationships, and is always a dependable colleague.

