

Gurples

Do not ask where we go from here
Nobody knows
Some think they do
but nobody really knows anything

about anything
We are only gurples
in the stream
and the stream doesn't know where it's going either
It is just going
It is just going with its nature as far as that
will take it

And with its nature
it has to take along a horde of gurples
who are forever asking where they are
gurgling to

Everything
is going beautifully
nowhere
