

Golden Apple Award

Gold Apple Award Recognizing Excellence on Education Educator Award

The Alle Kiski Strong Chamber is seeking to identify and honor outstanding educators (Faculty/Administration) in the Alle Kiski Region. Community members, students, teachers, and administrators are encouraged to nominate educators who have made outstanding contributions throughout their careers.

THE CRITERIA

Challenges students personally and academically to complete high quality work.

Demonstrates a student-centered philosophy in the classroom by engaging students in the learning process.

Incorporates activities that promote confidence and character, leading to productive behavior in school and in the community.

Extends the learning process beyond the classroom, incorporating partnerships with other educators, businesses and community-based agencies.

Encourages families, businesses and community members to become actively involved in school programs.

Demonstrates willingness to "Go the extra mile" by becoming involved in extra-curricular and other activities outside the classroom.

Serves as a role model and/or mentor for students and peers.

THE PROCESS

A selection committee will review all nomination forms and applications and select the Golden Apple Award recipient.

The Golden Apple Award recipient will be honored during a chamber awards event on Wednesday, May 13, 2020. Finalists will have the opportunity to address the audience at the event.
