CALL TO WORSHIP

God invites us to worship Him.

Listen as the pastor calls us to worship the LORD together and then join in singing songs of praise to Him!

John 12:35, 46; Psalm 56:12-13

Leader: Jesus said, "I have come into the world as light, so that whoever believes in me may not remain in darkness. Walk while you have the light and believe in the light while you have the light, that you may become sons of light."

All: I must perform my vows to you, O God; I will render thank offerings to you. For you have delivered my soul from death, yes, my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of life.

PRAAYER

The Invocation and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name.

Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth,

As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.

And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

CONFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth: And in Jesus Christ His only Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead. I believe in the Holy Ghost; the holy catholic church; the communion of saints; the forgiveness of sins; the resurrection of the body; and the life everlasting. Amen.

The Gloria Patri

#572

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost; As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, amen.

The Corporate Confession of Sin

Blessed Father, the author of all grace and comfort, forgive our sins even as you come and work repentance in our souls. Show us the true ugliness of sin that we may hate, confess, and flee from it. Melt our hearts by your majesty and mercy. Show us the devastating effects of sin, and how you alone can deliver us. Teach us to see you as our Creator and Savior. Help us to commit our souls to you without reserve, bear your image, observe your laws, pursue your service and may our lives be a testimony to your grace, a trophy of the victory of Jesus Christ, in whose name we pray. Amen.

WHAT WE'LL Learn

As we begin our third month in our series of worship lessons we focus this month on praise. We can, I think, all agree that the vast expanse of creation screams of the reality of a Creator. No "boom" could have generated a more precise and involved set of creatures to roam this earth. And when faced with that reality we are forced to give praise out of sheer awe to our great God.

We have a sun to provide us heat, a moon to cause the seas to flow in and out, and stars to show us where to go. We have cattle to provide food, dogs to keep us company, and birds to bring the first real notes of music to our ears. This world would be terribly boring and quite unlivable without those things.

Who are we to hinder, limit, nay prohibit the praise of this Creator? Jesus said in Luke 19:40, responding to the Pharisees' questioning the disciples' praise, "If they keep silent, the rocks will burst into cheers!" The created is wrought with angst if its Creator is not praised!

As we look to praise, the natural tendency is to observe what the recipient has done to deserve said praise. And our God has done quite a lot: created the universe, calculated the movement of the moon and sun, and engineered how the earth must move on its axis. That's quite a resumé to deserve praise!

Holy, Holy, Holy! Lord God Almighty! All Thy works shall praise Thy name, in earth, and sky, and sea; Holy, Holy, Holy! Merciful and mighty! God in three persons, blessed Trinity.
